VOL. XXV BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4, 1894. NO 40

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
DANIEL H. HASTINGS, of Centre.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
WALTER LYON, of Allegheny.

FOR AUDITOR-GENERAL,
AMOS H. MYLIN, of Lancaster.

FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS,
JAMES W. LATTA, of Philadelphia.

FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE,
GEORGE F. HUFF, of Westmoreland.
GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna.

FOR CONGRESS,
W. C. ARNOLD, of DuBois.

FOR STATE SENATOR,
M. L. McQUOWN, of Clearfield.

Republican County Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT JUDGE,
JOHN G. LOVE, of Bellefonte.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE,
BENJAMIN RICH, of Fleming.

FOR ASSEMBLY,
P. E. WOMELSDORF, of Philipsburg,
HARRY R. CURTIN, of Roland,

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER,
JOHN D. DECKER, of Potter twp.

HOW IS IT?

The well intentioned citizen who has not yet decided how to vote at the coming election may well consider his ground. I hope he will inquire of himself how he likes the conditions since the Republican party has gone out of power. How has it been with him individually? Has he had steady employment? Is he paid the old Republican wage rate? Does he find the cost of living cheaper and the ability to meet that cost better? Is his business prosperous? Is he as contented and confident of the future as before? When he has answered to himself these vital questions let him, on his way to the polls, pass the silent mill, the cold furnace, the broken bank, the desarted forge, let him pass by poverty and want, business paralyzed and confidence vanished, and then record his judgment of the responsibility for these conditions and his hope for the future in the ballot which he places in the box.—From speech of General Hastings at the League of Clubs convention.

THIS IS THE TIME.

This is the time for the best endeavors of prtriotism. If it shall grasp the great opportunity now presented the Republican party will enter upon a new if not a grander career in the redemtion of the land from material and industrial paralysis, from the lack of confidence, which is the father of panics, from that commercial frenzy which drives solvency to the wall, and from that unscrupulous quality of demagogy which seeks to array class against class, capital against labor, and section against section.—From speech of General Hastings at League of Clubs convention.

Look to Your Tax Receipts.

The November election will be held on the 6th day of November and tax receipts to qualify voters for that election must be obtained on or before the 6th of October. The law is explicit and all who fail thus to qualify themselves as voters will be disfranchised at the next general election.

Every citizen who has not paid a state or county tax that has been assessed within two years of election day, must pay such tax on or before the 6th of October to enable him to vote at the November election. Every self-respecting American citizen should own his own vote and pay his own tax. If he has property he can well afford to pay at the rate of twenty-five cents a year for the privilege of exercising his sovereignty in the government of city, state and nation. It is a reproach upon the patriotism of a citizen for him to ask others to pay the nominal taxes which are necessary to give him the right of suffrage. Don't be a pauper.

Conditions of Crops.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Telegraphic reports received at the weather bureau concerning the condition of the crops throughout Pennsylvania during the week ending Oct. 1 give the following information: Condition excellent for maturing crops and fall work, corn mostly in shock, balance ripening rapidly; pastures in good condition and wheat looking well; Wednesday's frost not generally damaging; buckwheat fair, fruit scarce.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Oct, 1, 1894.

From Our Regular Correspondent.)

The more the administration crowd thinks of the nomination of Senator Hill for Governor of New York the less they like it. Publicly it is difficult to get them to talk about it, further than to utter the usual platitudes about their being in favor of the nominee, and pecullar circumstances surrounding the case which are not understood outside of the State; but privately they do not hesitate to say that the whole business was a put up job for the purpose of making Hill, who was only a short time ago in danger of being publicly read out of the democratic party by his fellow democratic Senators because of his opposition to the tariff bill, the leader of the democratic party. His nomination has already proved decidedly embarassing to the managers of the democratic Congressional campaign. They have been sending out literature in defense of the tariff bill, and especially the income tax clause of it, and here is Hill, who voted against the tariff bill, nominated for Governor of the great State of New York, on a platform that specifically condemns the income tax. They dont know what to do. If they shout for Hill they offend Mr. Cleveland, who will control the Federal patronage until March 4, 1897, and if they dont they offend Hill, who may be the democratic nominee for the Presidency two years hence. The Republicans, while conceding the truth of Dan. Lamont's comment, that "Hill is a vote-getter," are pleased with the nomination, because they are confident that it will result in the election of Mr. Morton and in making the electoral vote of New York certain for the republican nominee in 1896. They fully agree with the administration men in believing that Hill's nomination was a put up job, and that its author was David B. Hill, but they think the administration ought to be glad of it, as Hill will be defeated and thus eliminated as a factor in national politics. The administration men would be glad enough of the opportunity to assist in the eliminating process were it not for their knowledge that if New York elects a republican Governor this year it will almost certainly go republican in the Presidential election.

About the smallest piece of political work ever done by any administration was the resumption in a small way of the coinage of silver dollars, in order that the coins might be used by stump speakers and personal workers among the more ignorant voters of the south and west to convince them that the Cleveland administration was so friendly to silver that it was still coining silver dollars. Of course this little trick will not fool intelligent newspaper readers, who know that Mr. Cleveland is the most bitter opponent of silver who ever sat in the President's chair, but from information received here these few 1894 silver dollars are fooling some voters. However, they are mostly in sections where the populists, not republicans, are injured. Still, it is a piece of dirty work.

Secretary Carlisle evidently did not enjoy his visit to Mr. Cleveland. Perhaps the bad news he carried of the democratic Congressional outlook was not well received. At any rate, the Secretary, who is ordinarily a man of even temper and pleasant disposition, has been in a terribly bad humor ever since his return. It is said that Mr. Cleveland vetoed several propositions submitted to him by Mr. Carlisle concerning Treasury business, and that one of them was the proposed formulation of rules for the payment of a rebate upon imported alcohol used in the arts. Whether this be true or not your correspondent does not undertake to say, but it is come out by the semi-official announcement that the Treasury Department will not undertake to put into effect the clause of the tariff law authorizing such rebate without further Congressional legislation.

The democratic Congressional campaign committee contained a lot of thoroughly disgusted individuals when the cabled report of that fool-speech made before the London Chamber of Commerce by Representative Wilson, of W. Va., reached Washington. Some of them privately admitted that any man who had little enough judgment to make such a speech in a foreign country ought not to be elected to Congress, and few of them now think that he even had a chance to be elected. The speech is regarded as such excellent republican campaign material that a committee from Mr. Wilson's district came to Washington as quick as they could get here after seeing the cabled synopsis of the speech, to ask the republican Congressional committee to secure a full stenographic report of it for general distribution in the district. They wish every voter in the district to know the unmerican language which so loudly applauded by the men who so interests, are all anti-merican, and the republican committee will aid in carrying out their wishes. Every voter in Wilson's district will be given an opportunity to read that speech.

The Factory Inspectors' Convention.

The annual meeting of the International Factory Inspectors' Association has done much to call public attention to various evils and dangers of the modern factory system. The association is composed of experienced men and women, who, in the performance of their sworn duties, have become familiar with every defect and abuse attendant on the herding of large numbers of employed in immense buildings filled with powerful and dangerous machinery. Representing many sections and forms of manufacturing industry, the defects incident to locality or particular branches of industry could hardly escape notice.

The first important step toward removing the evils of our modern factory system is to secure accurate knowledge of the evils to be removed; the second is the cultivation of an irresistible public sentiment which shall demand their removal. The members of the convention through their personal investigations as inspectors were the best informed class of men and women on this subject found anywhere. The convention gave tham an opportunity through the papers read and the discussing engaged in to furnish the public with their own discoveries and conclusions. Something additional was doubtless gained in the way of a comparison of the various State laws upon factory inspection, thus opening the way for greater uniformity in legislation.

It will not be amiss to urge a careful and cordial consideration of the many recommendations contained in the series of resolutions adopted by the convention. Some of these may be impracticable or too radical, but the demand for legislation requiring the adoption of reasonable safeguards for the lives and health of factory employes should be heartily sustained by everybody. Most States have some protective legislation, but few, if any, have laws that cannot be improved upon. A well-digested and uniform system of factory legislation should be adopted in all the States, and conventions like that just closed in Philadelphia should and probably will be the most effective agency in procuring its enactment.

The Successful Student.

By successful student is meant one who does not study merely for recitation, but for the purpose of deriving a benefit therefrom.

He is striving to develop a mental character that will enable him to solve the knotty problems of every day life when they come up before him in after years.

By the mastery of one difficult task he expects to receive courage and strength that will help him to perform his next duty, ever keeping in view the fact that "Each victory will help you some other to win."

Thus encouraged, he does not despair and give up when he fails to solve a problem in Algebra or Arithmetic but, feeling assured that "Where there is a will there is a way," strives on until victory perches upon his banner. Then he feels strengthened and is prepared for other conquests.

Thus step by step he ascends the ladder of advancement until he feels that he is prepared to assume the responsibilities of life. And when he makes his debut into the business world with a force of mortal and intellectual character, he finds many places of honor and trust open to him. Then he can look back upon his school days with a proud heart and thank God that he had a teacher that induced him to make great exertions and required perfect lessons of him.

But how different will be the memory of him who studies only to learn the text of a lesson that he may be able to recite it, and then dismiss it from his mind. He is always about for something easy that he can learn without making any great mental exertion. He retires early at nights and then complains that his lessons are too long. Thus by shirking duties and putting off until to-morrow what should be done to-day, he whiles away his time in youth and finds himself a man without the qualifications necessary to meet the realities of citizenship.

Weekly Financial Review.

NEW YORK, Sept 29, 1894.

Wall Street is still waiting for "the moving of the waters." With no special weariness or anxiety however. The "bulls" are conservative and in no hurry to precipitate an improvement which they are confident must come at no very distant date, and which they think may come in better shape and with more intrinsic force if allowed to wait until conditions are more fully ripe for it. They therefore extend full length of rope to the "bears;" for one reason, because they have no objection to an opportunity for increasing their holdings at a lower range of prices; and, for another, because an over-sold market may give them a chance for making a profitable turn at the expense of the enemy.

Moreover, there are, at the moment, special reasons for this waiting and tentative attitude. Business, especially the distributive department of it, is just now entering a new transient phase. After a very active commercial movement, during which the depleted stocks of retailers have been pretty well replenished, there is a disposition to see what is the response from consumers. This feeling prevails alike among retailers and jobbers, and there is consequently a partial reaction from the late marked activity,—perhaps beyond what is usual at this stage of the season. This is only sound business prudence and nothing more than might be expected under existing circumstances. The first-hand dealers and the jobbers can well afford this relaxation of demand; for the last six weeks of distribution has left them with light stocks, and many articles have become scarce, while pricee have correspondingly strengthened. Of course, the trade croakers and the pessimist speculators seek to make the worst of this temporary phase of the merchandise markets; but it would be a mistake to construe these symptoms as implying any abatement of the late recovery of confidence. Prudent operators have foreseen this mood, and that has been one cause of the recent comparative inactivity of the "bull" element of the stock market.

Politics, too, are beginning to have some retarding influence on speculation. The campaign in this State is likely to be unusually exciting. As the elections involve the possibility of a return of ascendancy to the present minority party, the Congressional elections throughout the Union will be attended with unusual interest; for the result will determine the policy of the nation upon many questions of the most vital importance to the future of industry, foreign commerce and the stability of our currency. The coming month therefore will be occupied in watching symptoms; and that is a position favorable rather to caution and to short turn than to large and well-sustained operations.

But while influences such as those above mentioned are calculated to produce a hesitating market for the next few weeks, there are important factors all the time preparing the way for an ultimate development of conditions favorable to greater activity and higher prices. The banks find it impossible to employ their loanable funds at anything approaching satisfactory rates. The interior banks hold unprecedentedly large cash reserves, and the city banks consequently fear that the drain of currency to the crop-moving sections may soon cease; so that they see little prospect of call loans bringing more than the now current rate of interest. Herein lies a strong inducement for large operators to undertake speculative movements upon a broad scale so soon as the railroads fully reflect the improvement in trade and when the export movement in grain has developed to larger dimensions. Within the next few months, therefore, the earnings of the railroads may be expected to reach about their normal volume; the industries will have adapted themselves to the new tariff conditions; labor will be more generally employed; and the consumptive demand from the working population will have returned to its average volume. And it is not to be overlooked that the restoration of confidence in trade and manufacturers is laying the basis for the employment of capital in new industrial and commercial undertakings, which will show its effects in a general stimulus to demand and in a fuller employment of labor. With this restoration to normal conditions there will be no lack of employment for the now idle floating balances; long deferred enterprise will be launched; postponed railroad extensions, replenishments and repairs will be undertaken; and the business of the country at large will enter on a new period of expansion. This is the natural drift of things under existing circumstances; and it is not easy to present any good reasons why the hope of this revival should be long postponed; the realization is probably much closer at hand than is now supposed; so near that it would be unwise to realize now upon good securities.

Under all the conditions of the market, the best practical policy is to avoid "short" sales; to buy on sharp depressions, and to be satisfied with moderate profits.

HENRY CLEWS.

FOREIGN IN COMPETITION WITH AMERICAN WHEAT.

It is no longer a question of extending the sale of our grain abroad, as the Tariff Reform demagogs have been deluding us but that of saving our home markets. This is our most serious problem.

The late democratic abomination of a tariff bill took off the protection of 25 cents a bushel on wheat, and substituted a 20 per centum ad valorem duty. As everybody knows, ad valorem duties are levied according to cost at place of production. What this may be in regard to wheat remains to be demonstrated, but it will probably not be placed higher than 25 cents a bushel on Argetine and Russian wheat. Indeed, the heads of the big English syndicates which are operating the Argentine farms have always claimed that they could make large profits raising wheat at a shilling—24 cents—a bushel. This would made the duty on it, when imported under the present law, less than 5 cents a bushel and it can therefore be landed at the seaboard states of the United States at 30 cents a bushel plus the transportation from Buenos Ayres.

The transportation will be about 20 cents a bushel, making the total cost of Argentine wheat delivered at New York, Boston, Philadelphia or Baltimore at 50 cents a bushel.

The latest estimates are that Russia will have 140,000,000 bushels, and Argentine 80,000,000 bushels to sell, which together perhaps 25,000,000 bushels more than Europe is likely to want. Therefore we may expect at any day an offering of wheat from those countries in our seaboard exchanges, which will make a break in the prices of of our home market.

Such is the pass to which blatant democratic demogogism has brought us. Our home wool market is ruined, and now our grain market is seriously threatened.

This is a matter worthy the serious consideration of all Centre county farmers. The democratic stump speakers and newspapers promised you that if Cleveland was elected the price of wheat would go to $1.25 or $1.50 per bushel; they talked to you about the advantages of a foreign market; that this was the great wheat producing country; that to maintain the price we must maintain cordial trade relations with foreign countries; that this could only be done by reducing the tariff, which was only serviceable to the great trusts and corporations; that if we wanted them to buy our surplus wheat we must grant them access to our market for their goods and raw material. That there was no tariff protection in the McKinley bill for the farmer (a downright democratic lie told solely for political effect). The majority of our farmers believed these utterances and voted for a change. The change came and wheat immediately fell in price in this county from 85 cents to 55 cents per bushel, and this is the way these democratic promises were fulfilled, and now our farmers are brought face to face with a ruinous foreign competition with no hope of better times as long as the democratic policy of free trade dominates in the councils of our law makers. Now, we ask in good faith, is it not time for another change, and would it not be to the best interest of every farmer in this county and congressional district, to so vote as to rebuke a policy that is working only ruin to them? A vote for the whole republican ticket would seem to be only self-protection; at least, a vote for W. C. Arnold for congress would be wise. Think of this, then act in the interest of yourselves.

Victim of the Michigan Wreck.

Wellsboro Gazette: Miss Johanna Healey, of Morris Run, who was seriously injured in the great railroad wreck at Jackson, Mich., nearly a year ago, was removed to her home in a special Michigan Central car last Thursday. Miss Healey had both legs broken, her right arm broken above the elbow and her head badly cut. Since the accident she has been in a hospital in Detroit, receiving medical treatment for her injuries. She is said to be getting along finely and is looking well, with the exception of a bad scar on her face, a result of the accident. Her sister, Kate, was also severely injured in the wreck, and a few weeks ago fell on a defective sidewalk in Elmira and suffered a fracture of the right leg, the same limb that was broken at the time of the accident at Jackson.

Piano Tuning and Repairing.

THE JUDICIAL FINALE.

Naturally, it cannot help but be a source of great gratification to the Republicans of Centre county at the final ending of the judicial conference in Tyrone with the nomination of the candidate from Centre county, Hon. John G. Love; but while this fact is being considered another fact, and one no less important, must be given due consideration, and that is, the magnanimous action of Hon. K. Allen Lovell, the candidate from Huntingdon. It must be admitted that, looking at the question from Mr. Lovell's standpoint, he had just and conclusive grounds on which to base his claim to the nomination, namely, the fact that Centre county has had the judge for years, while Huntingdon has never been thus favored while in this district. On these grounds and for this reason, he held out so long. But to his credit it can be said, that through all the tedious session of four long weeks, not one unkind word was said by anyone; not a thing was done or said that could harm the cause or hurt the feelings of the most sensitive man.

And finally, after a thorough investigation into the sentiment of the people, not only in Centre county but throughout his own county of Huntingdon, Mr. Lovell found that the predominating feeling was in favor of Mr. Love. Realizing this, and willing to sacrifice every personal feeling or interest for the party's success and welfare, he manfully wrote his letter of withdrawal from the race and yielded the field to Mr Love; even requesting his conferees to vote for that gentleman unanimously. Such action is worthy of the highest praise and commendation, and Mr. Lovell, though he has sacrificed his desire to be the candidate for President Judge in the 49th judicial district and thus humbly bowing to the wishes of the majority has won for himself greater esteem and admiration than had he secured the nomination. And his action will be remembered by a grateful people, if the time again comes when he is a candidate for their support for any office. And his further declaration to do all in his power to secure the election of his successful opponent is a further demonstration of the noble qualities and high gentlemanly instincts of the man.

Arctic Acerbities.

Arctic exploration is not a picnic. First-class hotel fare is not ordinarily served on the Greenland ice-cap, or even in Winter quarters inside the Arctic circle. Exploration in all lands entails the hardest kind of work, meager fare and rigid discipline. In Arctic regions a man runs the additional risk of starving or freezing to death.

These are simple primary facts which cannot be forgotten by the public and should not be forgotten by those who volunteer in Arctic exploration, either before going or after returning. Within short distance of Lieutenant Peary's Winter quarters a large part of one Arctic party, Greely's, starved to death and a mere fraction lived. Kane's party escaped death from starvation at the crisis of its fate by a single lucky shot, and a third had as serious a risk. The party whose members come back from these perils without having faced starvation or worse is fortunate in its leader. In the attacks upon him Lieutenant Peary shares the assaults made upon Kane, upon Stanley, upon Speke and upon every other great explorer. Each was charged with being selfish, with seeking self-aggrandizement and with disregarding the comfort of his party.

Men volunteer on these expeditions with a light heart, under a vague impression that it is a fine thing to "explore," when, in fact, those who have wandered in strange lands know it is harder work than a day laborer will face at home, with slow death or sudden in the grim background. A certain amount of discontent is therefore inevitable on these expeditions, and it is increased by the curious fact that men shut together for a few lonely months always quarrel. The dissensions of a navy ward-room are proverbial, and every exploration and expedition to hot lands or cold has its inevitable, invariable record of bitter personal quarrels.

The County Fair Meeting.

We again desire to call the attention of our readers, and especially the farmers throughout the county, that Thursday evening, October 4th, is the date for the meeting in the court house in the interest of the organization of a Centre county fair association; and to urge upon all persons to be in attendance and do what they can to further the project. It is more than likely a permanent organization will then be effected and it will be a good time for all who contemplate taking any interest in the association to be present and have their say in its organization. There will be reports from several important committees and the matter of the selection of a suitable location for the grounds will likely be fully decided.

HILL FOR GOVERNOR.

Unanimously Nominated by the New York Democratic Convention.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—David B. Hill will lead the Democratic forces of the Empire state this fall. The convention, which started in to carry out the wishes of the party leaders, broke away from all control, and, amid scenes of wildest confusion, nominated its chairman in spite of himself. The ticket nominated is as follows: For governor, David B. Hill; for lieutenant governor, Daniel D. Lockwood; associate judge of the court of appeals, William J. Gaynor.

Senator Hill did not accept, but as he did not decline the democracy has as its standard bearer the man who has twice carried the state by big majorities and has added to his laurels by his career in the United States senate The rank and file of the party have called him to lead them in this, the critical year for democracy, and he will obey.

Democrats who entered the hall with apathy written on their faces, went out with smiles and hugged each other for joy. On all sides the verdict was: "We have never nominated a stronger ticket."

There is considerable doubt as to Judge Gaynor's acceptance of the nomination of the judgeship, but the leaders here are confident that, like Senator Hill, he will bow to the will of his party.

Shortlidge Pleads Not Guilty.

Media, Pa., September 26.—Professor Swithin C. Shortlidge, who shot and killed his young wife, Marie Dixon Jones Shortlidge, on Sunday, December 31, last, was placed on trial to-day. The principal witness examined was Dr. Mary Jones, mother of the murdered bride. There was a stir among the spectators when Dr. Jones exclaimed: "This man has killed my daughter; he has never had an insane day in his life. He called at my home in '92. I was very much surprised, as I never saw anything about him to commend. He came to see my daughter in New York and misrepresented himself. If he had not won her he would have shot her, for my precious girl was doomed by that man."

The witness was about to tell what she had heard of Professor Shortlidge, but the court interrupted her and instructed her to speak of what she knew to be true. "Murder was in his heart all the time," she continued, "and he arranged to kill me that morning he killed my daughter. I not only think that he did not love her, but he was jealous of her accompliments." The witness further stated that she opposed the marriage, but attended the wedding.

Chief of Police McNiff who made the arrest, and several other witnesses examined testified to the wild expressions on the face of the prisoner. Rev. Henry Dixon Jones, a brother of the murdered woman, was also examined.

The commonwealth rested its case tonight and Attorney Broomall opened for the defense. The killing is not denied, but the decree will be insanity. Dr. D. T. Laine, who attended the accused during his sickness, said he warned Mrs. Shortlidge that her husband might go insane. Dr. J. W. Fronefield, the prison physician told of the professor's raving condition while in jail before being sent to the asylum. The testimony in the case will close to-morrow with calling of the medical experts from Philadelphia and New York. The commonwealth will present evidence to rebut the witness for the defense called to prove insanity.

Locating Confedernte Lines.

Chattanooga, Tenn., September 26.—The work of locating the confederate lines in 1863, on Lookout mountain, Missionary Ridge and Chickamauga is progressing nicely. Many of the commissioners appointed by the governors of the several southern states that had troops in these battles are now in the city, assisting the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park commissioner in the work. The Louisiana commission arrived yesterday afternoon. General Boynton, Smith, Fullerton and Stuart, the park commissioners, expect to have all the lines and positions located within the next month.

General K. C. Walthall and Major Geo. M. Gevan, members of the Mississippi state commission spent Monday with the park commissioners in locating the position of Walthall's brigade in the battle of Chickamauga, and yesterday Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge were inspected,

Major Gevan was inspector general of Walthall's brigade, which was composed the Twenty-fourth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, and Thirty-fourth Mississippi regiments and Fowler's Alabama battery.

Fury of the Gale.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 26.—The expected hurricane from the West Indies struck Jacksonville to-day at 11 a. m., and the wind blew in a gale over the city at the rate of forty-six miles per hour and rain poured down in torrents. Business is absolutely paralyzed. The Everett Hotel, the largest in the city, is unroofed and flooded with water. The unfinished Union depot is blown down. The loss is $20,0 0 and a number of people are injured, but none killed.

There is no communication from South Florida, but it is expected that many Indian river orange groves are totally ruined. The streets of Jacksonville are flooded. The river is three feet above the normal. The wind at the mouth of the river recorded sixty miles an hour. Mayport river at its mouth is flooded and several houses are inundated. No persons lost their lives there Two houses at Jacksonville were blowndown.

Adrift on the Ocean.

Halifax, Sept 26.—One hundred and ninety-two hours in an open dory on the Atlantic without food or water was the kernel of a story told by Allain Ange and Botiel Marie. They were fishermen on the French schooner, L. S. B., and lost sight of their vessel on August 28, when she was about 100 miles from St Johns. They slept and watched by turns. On August 31 a British steamer passed bound west. Ange and Marie cried for help but the boat kept on its way. Up to the 4th inst. hunger had not assailed them. They had vitality enough to withstand the privation of food for a more extended period if necessary, but thirst began to assume the mastery. Marie lost control of himself. He dished up water in a fog horn and drank that. The salt water made him delirious. He waved his arms and sang and laughed demonically. Several times he tried to jump overboard but Ange restrained him. Marie finally grew comatose and reposed in the bottom of the dory. On September 5 both men were light headed and suffering terribly. It was in that condition that the steamer Germond rescued them in the afternoon.

Trolley Car Runs off.

Philadelphia Sept, 26.—A trolley car ran away this morning at Twenty second and Walnut sreet, and three persons were injured. The motorman, James Dulen, fainted from an unknown cause, and the car dashed into a wagon that was being driven by Alexander Black. He was thrown to the ground and badly bruised. Mrs. Abbey Jackson a passenger, became frightened and arose from her seat and was thrown from the car, and had one of her arms broken. Policeman McDonough jumped on the car in an attempt to stop it, was thrown over the dasher by the collision and injured about the back. The car was filled with passengers and all of them were excited, but the car was stopped before any other damage had been done.

Judge Denny to Be Owen's Opponent

Lexington, Ky., Sept 26—By a unanimous vote, Judge Denny, jr., of Lexington, was made the nominee of the Republican party for congress by the district convention, held there the afternoon. Scattered through the convention hall were numerous Democrats who had supported Breckinridge in the late Democratic primaries. Judge Denny's speech pleased the Breckinridge men immensely as it did the majority of the Republicans, but the Owens men are very sore and are considerably frightened over the universal approval with which it has been met by the Breckinridge men. While the judge cannot hope to poll all the Breckinridge votes, he will undoubtedly get a great many of them-

PEKIN IS THE OBJECT.

The Japanese Get Together an Army to Invade China's Domains.

Washington, September 26. — To-day's advices from Tokio stating that a second Japanese army of 80,000 men sailed yesterday from Hiroshima, is regarded in official circles here as the first move in the advance on Pekin, the Chinese capital. It is pointed out that there is no need of Japanese reinforcements in Corea, as since the battle of Ping Yang the Japanese practically have had possession of Corea, and their first army of 15,000 men needs no aditions.

It is believed by diplomats that the Japanese have turned their attention from Corea with a view to invading China. The gulf of Pachili, which the dispatches give as the probable destination of the army, is the entrance to the river leading to Pekin It is said, however, that the forts at the mouth of the river are practically impregnable, owing to a stretch of mud flats around them, It is not believed, therefore that any advance on Pekin would be made up the river, but that the 30,000 men would be landed at some port, whence a short overland march would take them to the walls of Pekin. This circuit of the forts is the strategic move advised by a United States army officer of high rank, who has made a study of Japan's proposed invasion of China.

Lutherans in Session.

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 27.—The Central Pennsylvania synod of the Lutheran church is in annual session here. The synod comprises the counties of Centre, Juniata, Mifflin Perry and Snyder, and the town of Lock Haven. The preliminary gospel service was held in St. John's Lutheran church last evening, Rev. Dr. J. A. Earnest, of Mifflinburg, delivering the sermon from the text Jeremiah xxxi:35.

The first business session opened this morning, Dr. Earnest presiding. Thirty ministers and twenty delegates answered to the roll call. The reading of the report of the retiring president, Dr. Earnest, occupied the first period.

The election of officers for the ensuing year followed, and resulted: President, Rev. H. C. Holloway, D. D., of Mifflintown, Pa.; secretary, Rev. A. G. Wolf, of Aaronsburg, Centre county, Pa.; treasurer, Mr. W. T. Horton, of Reedsville, this county.

During the morning session addresses were delivered by Rev. H. C. Haithcox, secretary of the board of education, general synod; Rev. Dr. A. S. Hartman, of the board of home missions, general synod.

The synod adjourned at 11.30 to allow the president to appoint his committees.

Convention met at 2 p. m. The first business was the appointing of committees.

Revs. H. W. Decker, R. F. Wilson and J. M. Reimensnyder were made advisory members of the synod. Rev. W. D. E. Scott and Mr. T. J. Movinger were elected trustees of the Trexler's orphan home.

When synod adjourned, the election of delegates to the general synod was under discussion.

THE effect of free trade on our own manufactures is not a matter for guess or speculation. The experience of the past tells us what it will be. Our manufactures can go on only if employers can secure a great reduction in wages. It is not possible to sell cottons and woolens, spun and woven by people who earn American wages, in an open market with cottons and woolens made by people who earn English wages. In some fields the competition will be even severer. German wages are lower than English, and the Germans have carried the arts of cheap and nasty manufacture to a point which even John Bull has not reached. Once more we shall have a deluge of pot metal pocket cutlery selling on the streets at fifteen to twenty-five cents a knife, but dear at a nickel. In fact, the decenter manufacturers of England will have reason to curse our new ad valorem duties no less than ourselves. Sheffield trade with us will suffer from the wholesale importation of continental trash, invoiced at cost or less, and paying duties accordingly.

PAY your taxes and advise your neighbor to pay his. The sooner the better.

WHEREVER General Hastings and his associates have visited thus far in the campaign they have been warmly welcomed, and the crowds that have turned out to hear a discussion of the issue of the campaign have been remarkably large. A feature of all the meetings thus far has been the attendance of many workingmen who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket. Close observers who have been present at the meetings give some indication of what may be expected by the statement that whenever the policy of protection has been praised and the policy of free trade denounced none have been more free in applauding the ons and crying down the other than the workingmen who have been present at the meetings. The Republican party never was afraid to trust the settlement of any issue to the workingmen, and it has no fear this year.

Driscoll in Luck.

Harrisburg, Pa., September 26.—At a meeting of the board of public property today Thomas Driscoll was given a warrant for forty acres of unseated land in Cascade township, Lycoming county. Cyrus Echard's claim to thirteen acres in Connellsville township, Fayette county, was approved. Thomas W. Moore has submitted a claim for a tract of 135 acres of valuable coal land on Broad Top mountain, which is opposed by the Rock Hill Iron and coal company. This and other applications were argued at, but were held over til morning.

—Sheriff Condo has a good stock of fish baskets on hand which he has removed from Penn creek and the Bald Eagle.

—The Reformed sociable will be held on Thursday evening of next week, instead of on Friday evening, as announced in yesterday's News. It will be at the residence of Mrs. C. M. Bower, on East Linn street.

—The members of St. John's Catholic church of Bellefonte are making preparation to hold a fair for the benefit of the new parsonage. It will open on November 5th in the new Brockerhoff building, "Temple Court," first floor, with a supper —The mine banks, connected with the Valentine furnace, will begin operations in a short time. Supt. J. W. Gephart recently returned from the Eastern states and secured many new customers for "Nittany Pig." This will be good news to our workingmen.

—Quite a large delegation of Bellefonters are now daily visiting the several locations mentioned as available sites for a fair ground, and when the next meeting is held, more persons than ever will be able to discuss the question of location more thoroughly and sensibly than heretofore.

—According to a recent order from the post office department at Washington, all mail agents are required to reside at some point along the route. This will compel Charles Foster, of State College, and Mr. Geary of Unionville, to locate along the main line, between Philadelphia and Pittsburg. That will make it slightly unpleasant for them.

—A regimental court martial will convene at the quarters of Company I, of Bedford, of the Fifth regiment, October 5, for the purpose of hearing the cases of six members of Company I who are charged with conduct unbecoming a soldier. the charges being brought under section 65 of the military code. Major R. C. McNamara will be president of the court martial and First Lieutenant Stackpole of Company G. Lewistown judge advocate.

Tried to Shoot Warden Graffius.

Fish Warden W. M. Graffius, of Huntingdon, and two assistants narrowly escaped being riddled with bullets fired by an individual in ambush while tearing out fish dams and baskets in the Raystown branch on Wednesday. Seven balls alighted in the water close to where the trio worked and an eighth bullet whizzed past the fish warden's ear.

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 25 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrified. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 569 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an eminent specialist in heart disease, is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from all opiates or dangerous drugs.

GOLDEN HOURS

PROSPECTUS FOR 1894.

Since the first number of GOLDEN HOURS was issued it has been conceded by juvenile readers to be the best young people's paper in the world. Although gratified beyond expression by the hearty appreciation with which his efforts to please have been met, the proprietor shall in future strive to obtain still more hearty encomiums, and shall continue to give to the youth of America a paper that will be both instructive and entertaining, and a welcome weekly visitor to every household in the land.

In circulation, the quality of serials and short stories published, artistic illustrations and neat typographical appearance, GOLDEN HOURS is far ahead of its competitors. It has imitators by the score, which is an evidence of its popularity, but it has no equals.

On the staff of contributors to GOLDEN HOURS are such well-known writers of young people's stories as

Weldon J. Cobb,	Matt Royal,
Harriet Irving Hancock,	"Scriptus,"
Cornelius Shea,	Fred Thorpe,
Wm. G. Patten,	George W. Browne,
Burt R. Braddock,	T. C. Harbaugh,
S. D. A. Cox,	Ad. H. Gibson,
Walter F. Burns,	Arthur C. Grissom,

and others of world-wide reputation, who contribute regularly to its columns.

Family Reunion.

On Saturday, the 22nd inst., the Pifer family held a family reunion picnic in the grove, on the Pifer homestead, in Marion township. It proved to be one of the most enjoyable occasions for the family in many years. Sarah Pifer, mother of the family, of Howard Pa., Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McClintock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Krape, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pifer, and family all of Lamar Pa; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Pifer and family of Lock Haven; Mrs. A. V. Smith and family of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Pifer and family of Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pifer and family of Pittsburg Pa. all members of the family; Mrs. D. Postlewait of Dubois, and many other friends composed the company. All the children and grand children, (about fifty in number) were present except Mrs. Bollopue, of Oklahoma Territory. The table was laden with the choice of the farm and markets. Mother Pifer presented each of her children with a valuable gift as a memento of the occasion. All went home very much pleased, hoping they might live to see many more such enjoyable reunions.

Centre County's Wealth.

Robert Hunter, county commissioner's clerk, kindly furnishes the assessments of Centre county for the year 1894, from which is gleaned the following: Value of "seated" real estate, subject to tax, $10,801, 556; value of real estate exempt from tax, $10,283,040; with all unseated lands excluded. Died in Marion Township.

Mrs. Sarah Garbrick died in Marion township on Friday, Sept. 21st, aged about 73 years. She was a daughter of Jacob Harter and was born in Haines township May 4th, 1821. She was married to Jacob Garbrick 29 years ago. She was a consistent christian, a faithful wife and a very affectionate mother, enjoying the respect of all who knew her. The funeral was held on Sunday and was largely attended. Rev. J. G. McSwingel conducted the services. Interment was made at Jacksonville.

Progress of the Cholera Epidemic.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Surgeon Irwin, of the Marine Hospital Service, and its representative in Europe, in his report this week regarding the progress of cholera from August 29 to September 5 with information to the latter day says that there has been little change since last reports. There have been fewer cases in Germany, while in Austro-Hungary, Belgium and Holland the situation is about the same. In Russia the epidemic is progressing rapidly, and could hardly be worse.

—Several weeks ago the Y. M. C. A. made an effort to have a young people's gathering at Hecla Park on October 6th, notice of which has been given in this paper. But owing to the late season, and their inability to secure good speeches for the occasion, the project has been abandoned, much to the regret of many friends of the association. However, the idea has not entirely fallen through, as the young men purpose to push the matter at a time more favorable for such gatherings

That Gettysburg Trolley.

In an article recently published in this paper on the Gettysburg Trolley question, it was stated that the tide had turned. This statement will be believed beyond a doubt when it is learned that in Gettysburg town where a veritable hotbed of opposition to the trolley at first existed, there is now practically no opposition whatsoever. To prove the latter statement we quote a few sentences taken from an article just published in the Gettysburg Compiler, a paper which until the recent meeting at Gettysburg of the jury appointed to condemn the disputed portion of the electric road opposed the enterprise in the severest terms. Notice what the Compiler says:

"It is absurd to say that the line as proposed would be as interesting to the general traveler as the present line. On the new route there is scarcely a shade tree, there is not a monument of great beauty, there is not a place suitable for a station; whereas the present station is along side of a pleasant and shady grove, quite close to the attractive 'Devil's Den.' Col. Bachelder's testimony was interesting and indicative. When asked about the new route and about the consent of the land owners, he said that the consent of the supervisors had not been gotten, nor of the United States, nor of Mr. Krise. If Mr. Hoffer was aware that Col. Bachelder was doing business for the United States, the supervisors and Mr. Krise, he was justified in going ahead with his road and paying no attention to the proposal of the Commission, because it was giving away something in which it had no right whatever.

"We have been led to suppose heretofore that the opposition to the trolley was its desecration of the Battlefield. While it is true that but few, if any, of Gettysburg's people see any desecration in it, we thought that others might so see it. The testimony showed but little of this feeling on the part of anybody. * * * It may be, as Mr. Hart said, that there is something back of the proceeding and that something looks more like personal feeling rather than anything else. Mr. Hoffer may not himself always have done the square thing, but it is not right to drive him from this field or to interfere with a legal business to gratify the personal ambition of a few people."

Nothing is needed to supplement these quotations for the purpose of showing that a great big fuss has been raised over a very small nothing and that, too, perhaps, to satisfy some hidden selfishness.

Tax on School Bonds.

Patriot: Attorney General Hensel has instructed Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaeffer that school boards issuing bonds containing the words "free from all taxation" are required to pay tax on these bonds. The school board of South Williamsport recently issued bonds making this stipulation and the question arose whether the bonds were subject to tax and if so, whether the tax would have to be paid by the holders in the school district. The matter was referred to Superintendent Schaffer, who has received an opinion from the attorney general in which he decides that this form of bond establishes contract between the bond and the owner of the bonds to relieve him from any tax on them and that the bond is liable for the state tax.

Exit the Letter Sheet.

The manufacture of letter-sheet envelopes ceased on the 30th of June last by an order of the postoffice department. Since that time at presidential offices the sale of stock on hand has been going on. The supply at most offices is now very nearly exhausted, and the department in a circular dated August 18, advises "those who use these letter sheet envelopes, or desire to preserve specimens thereof, should avail themselves of the opportunity yet left to purchase them. They can be had only at presidential offices." The Bellefonte office is a presidential one, and a good supply of these letter-sheet envelopes is on hand. The letter-sheet envelope is a sheet of paper intended to write a letter on which when folded also forms the envelope.

Missionary Convention at Aaronsburg.

The ninth annual convention of the Missionary society of West Susquehanna clasis of the Reformed church at Aaronsburg, Centre county, on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 11th and 12th. The opening sermon was preached by M. L. Firor, of Williamsport, and was an elegant discourse. The convention was well attended, most of the delegates being present, and was a success in every way. The officers for the ensuing year are, Rev. A. A. Black, Boalsburg, Pa., president; Mrs. C. M. Bower, Bellefonte, vice president; Mrs. Mary E. Whitmore, Mifflinburg, recording secretary, and Rev. W. A. Haas, Selinsgrove, treasurer.

—From every portion of the county comes word that the farmers are becoming interested in the movement started in Bellefonte to re-organize a county fair, and they send word to push the work and they will join in the procession.

BURGLARS WORK HARD.

But Get Little "Stuff" in Lucas Bros. Store.

From the Weekly Hornet we glean the following particulars about the robbery at Lucas Bros. store Thursday night:

A daring burglary was committed in Howard last Thursday night or early Friday morning. The thieves entered Lucas Bros' store, through a rear window, proceeded to drill a hole in the safe which they filled with dynamite, blowing out the front part of the safe and lining. It was the completest wreck we ever saw. The burglars took webs of cotton goods and piled them around the safe to deaden the sound, but the explosion blew them away. One of the webs of cotton goods took fire, but the thieves evidently put it out or the store would have gone up in smoke.

The thieves got only a small amount of money, a few pennies and nickles, in the money drawers for their trouble. They ransacked the entire store, and all that is missing are a few eggs that were in the cellar. There was a stranger in the town, who, during the day, visited the stores and made a few purchases and paid for them in pennies and nickles. He was about five feet, eight inches in height; wore a black derby hat, dressed in brown clothes and wore a very light thin beard, and appeared to be about twenty-nine years of age. He was evidently the spy of the party.

This is the sixth or seventh time the same store has been burglarized, three of the former burglars being captured and sent to the western penitentiary, where these and all other thieves should be safely housed.

Condo's Boarders.

From the Bellefonte correspondent in Pennsylvania Grit we take the following statistics about the Centre county jail: "Since Sheriff John P. Condo took possession of the county resort, on jail hill, January 1 last, there have been confined in jail 87 persons, 13 of whom were foreigners, the others being American born, including one colored person. 5 of the number never attended a school, and 14 were uneducated. Of the crimes charged against them, 4 were tried for horse stealing and 3 convicted—the other one escaped conviction on account of limitation of time before prosecution was commenced. 13 were committed for larceny and 3 for stealing; 2 for drunkenness. The rest of the prisoners stand charged with minor offences, from slander up to conspiracy. There are 17 guests at the resort at the present time, some serving out their sentences, while others are awaiting trial. Since January 1st, the average number of boarders has been 16 per day, a larger list than was ever on record since the county was organized."

The Fair Prospects.

On Thursday the committee on locating the new fair gounds had a surveyor on a couple of the sites mentioned. The Humes tract is large enough to locate a half mile course, gives plenty of room for exhibition buildings, etc. The McCoy & Linn tract, while it is long enough, is too narrow for a full course, tho by the time a creek channel sufficient to carry off the water would be put through. However, it will be left to the organization to say which location shall be selected.

A committee of two, J. C. Meyer, Esq., and Mr. Hammon Sechler, visited Lewisburg on Thursday to find out all they could about the organization in that place. They will have a good and full report of the work assigned them by the next meeting night. It is also very gratifying to see the interest that is being taken in this movement by all farmers throughout the county. They see at once the advantages of a good county fair and are going to do all in their power to help the matter along.

Beaten All to Pieces.

Waltham, Mass., Sept. 28.—The biggest cycle race of them all, a mile with pacemakers, was beaten all to pieces by John S. Johnson, of Syracuse, this afternoon at the Waltham Cycle park, the most sensational piece of riding that has been noted this whole sensational year. Until this afternoon the world's record was 1.52 3-5, made by J. P. Bliss, at Springfield. The fastest mile ever ridden in the world on a bicycle has been 1:51 by Mike Dirnberger, of Buffalo, but his record was not accepted as official, as he paced by horses. But the Waltham track now holds the fastest record, Johnson's time being 1:50 3-5. Besides breaking the world's mile record, Johnson also beat the three-quarter mile record, doing that distance in 1:23.

Seventh Cavalry Reunion.

The committee on arrangements for the Seventh Penn'a Cavalry reunion, to be held in Lock Haven October 23d and 24th have issued the following card:

To accomodate survivors of the Seventh Penn'a Cavalry regiment, residing in Clinton and nearby counties, the seventeenth annual reunion was fixed for Lock Haven. It is hoped that every survivor in Clinton, Lycoming and Centre counties will be present on Tuesday, October 23d, and will remain until Wednesday 24th. Don't miss the parade Tuesday evening.

Riches Take Wings.

Harry Latimer, well known on every horse track in the country, and a professional with the cards, was sentenced in the Luzerne county court to pay his wife $20 a month. Two years ago he deserted her there and married an heiress at Danville, Pa. At the World's Fair Latimer counted his wealth at $200,000. In the early part of the summer he spent most of time at the seaside resorts. He told the court that his money had taken wings, and he was now compelled to do farm work and make a living. In his prosperity Latimer used to change his clothes three times a day, and he never had less than $1,000 worth of diamonds on his person.

The Furman Boiler.

Mr. F. W. Crider has just had put in the basement of the Crider building, on corner of diamond, a new Furman boiler, with which he will heat by steam the entire block of Crider's building and exchange. The boiler was fired up this noon and it took but a little while to heat up the radiators throughout the entire building.

Becomes a Presbyterian Minister.

By a unanimous vote of Presbytery Rev D. J. Mutterling, of Le Grange, Ind., has been accepted into the ministry of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Mutterling is a native of Potter township, this county, and was formerly a minister of the Lutheran church.

—The funeral of Mr. Hugh Taylor on Wednesday afternoon was largely attended. Rev. William Laurie, D. D., officiated. The pall bearers were Messrs. Monroe Armour, W. S. Bell, James Schofield, J. G. Harper, James Gehlen, and Michael Hayes.

LUTHERAN SYNOD OVER.

The One in Session at Lewistown, Pa., Adjourned Finally.

Lewistown, Pa., September 30.—The session of the synod Friday evening was occupied by Rev. W. K. Diehl, who spoke on education, and by Rev. H. H. Webber, D. D., secretary of the board of church extension of the general synod, who presented the needs of his board to the synod.

The morning session Saturday opened with devotional services and the business was taken up in the following order:

Revs. Charles Fickinger and S. F. Greenhoe and Clement Dale, Esq., were appointed a committee on the catalogue of the missionary institute at Sellinsgrove, Pa.

The committee on protocol, state of religion and devotional services then rendered their reports, as did the auditing committee on the report of the committee on ministerial education.

A new system of making benevolent contributions to the various calls on the church was then adopted. In brief it is that the treasurer send envelopes to the different churches in the synod and they return their contributions in the same.

Committee on apportionment, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society, president's letters, and missionary institute and on the retiring secretary's report then rendered their reports to the synod.

Rev. P. Anstadt, D. D., of York, Pa., and Professor F. B. Manhart were granted seats in the synod. The former made an address in behalf of his illustrated catechism and a biography on S. S. Shmucker, D. D.

On motion it was ordered that the treasurer be instructed to place the matter of collection of moneys due the synod from our former treasurer, W. H. Diven, into the hands of Clement Dale, Esq.

On motion it was ordered that the pastor and delegate of the Blain pastorate be instructed to present to the synod, at its next annual meeting, the proper papers for regular admission into the synod of the Trinity congregation of that pastorate.

Invitations were received from Liverpool and Mifflintown congregations for the synod to hold its next session in their churches and the latter was chosen with the date, the last Wednesday of September, 1895.

Professor Manhart was requested to give a verbal report of the Missionary institute.

Synod adjourned with prayer by Rev. G. W. Leisher.

The synod on Saturday afternoon was opened with preparatory service conducted by Rev. W. H. Shoch, who preached from Romans xi: 13. After the preparatory services the business sessions were resumed and the following committees were appointed: On communication from Professor J. W. Richard, D. D., Revs. W. F. Steck, J. C. Reighard, S. E. Smith; on communication from Rev. P. G. Bell, Revs. W. K. Diehl, J. W. Henderson, A. K. Zimmerman.

Reports were received from the committees on reply to the communication from the trustees of Pennsylvania college at Gettysburg, Parochial table and Heinbach appeal.

It was resolved "that the synod instruct the president to express our thanks to the good people of Lewistown for their generous hospitality which made our stay among them so very pleasant."

On motion synod then adjourned to meet then immediately as the ministerium which is strictly private.

The evening session of the synod Saturday was addressed by Rev. S. E. Smith, who preached a sermon on "Systematic Beneficence," and by Miss Cora Holliahan who spoke in behalf of Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society.

Synod met at 9.20 and proceeded to business as follows:

The speakers appointed for the next year's sessions were:

Synodical sermon, Rev. ——Holloway, of Mifflin; missionary sermon, Rev. E. E. Hoshour; educational sermon, A. H. Shock; systematic beneficence sermon, Rev. G. W. Leisher; preparatory sermon, Rev. W. D. E. Scott; communion sermon, Rev. J. A. Earnest, D. D.; children's service, Revs. E. E. Deitrict, W. H. Shock; ordination sermon, J. R. Durim, D. D.

It was resolved that the resolutions relative to the Lutheran Evangelist express our opinion on the subject, yet we deem it proper to recod them only on the protocol and not on the minutes, and that they be sent to the paper and if it does not discontinue that next year they will be placed on our minutes.

Reports of committees on letter from Rev.——Bell, Irving college,, leave of absence, deaconess and letter from Rev. D. Richard received.

The following amendments to the second chapter, second section, of constitution, was proposed: After the words, "all the officers shall be annually chosen by ballot," insert following: "For ensuing year at Friday morning's session to take their seats at the last meeting of synodical convention."

This resolution was then adopted. If one or more regular delegated drop out of the list of delegates to general synod, be it

Resolved, That the alternate having the highest number of votes shall fill the first vacancy in the list of the regular delegates and so in the order of their election.

Resolved, That the alternate who takes the place of the regular delegate shall always stand at the foot of the list.

On motion it was ordered that 2,000 copies of the minutes be printed and distributed by the secretary to pastorates in proportion to their membership; to ministers without charges; to beneficiary students and to educational institutions.

On motion the committee on Home for Disabled Ministers be continued for one year.

On motion the secretary was ordered to draw an order in favor of Orren Branen for $10 for services rendered to synod.

This morning the synod attended divine service and partook of the sacrament of the Lord's supper, Rev. A. K. Zimmerman delivering the sermon. The members of the synod filled the pulpits of the various churches in town in the morning and evening.

In the afternoon a children's service was held and was in charge of Revs. S. W. Leiser and C. B. Gruver.

SUNDAY EVENING.

The service this evening was the ordination and licensure of ministers. Rev. Charles Fickinger preached the sermon.

Revs. S. J. Ullrich, W. C. Dunlap, George F. Snyder and J. McC. Axe were ordained, and Revs. Charles F. Landers and George F. Courtney were licensed.

Synod then adjourned to meet at Mifflntown in 1895.

Industrial Exposition at Pittsburg, Excursion Tickets via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the Industrial Exposition at Pittsburg the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell, on October 4, 10, and 18, excursion tickets from stations on the Pittsburg Division between Pittsburg and Conemaugh, and from stations on the Southwest Pennsylvania Division to Pittsburg and return, at half fare, with price of admission to the exposition added.

These tickets will be good going on any regular train leaving stations at or before noon on the day of issue, and will be good for return passage until the following day inclusive.

Excursion tickets for this occasion will also be sold under similar conditions from stations on the Monongahalia Division on October 3, 9, and 17, and from stations on the West Pennsylvania Division on October 2, 11, 16.

The art display at the Exposition will be increased, and, in addition to many other interesting features on the programme, music will be furnished by the celebrated Innes Band of sixty pieces.

The frontispiece of the October Review of Reviews is a reproduction of a photograph of William Cullen Bryant, taken before his death, and now published for the first time. The centennial anniversary of the poet's birth is the occasion of the appearance in this number of the Review of an appreciative article on Bryant's place in our literature from the pen of Mr. William R. Thayer. The Review commends to our public schools and other institutions the celebration of the anniversary day, November 3, or Friday, the 2nd, if more convenient, as a proper tribute of respect to the memory of the Nestor of American letters.

Oh! For Strong Nerves.

What Does That Dreadful Feeling Mean.

CAN IT BE THAT INSANITY IS STARING ME IN THE FACE?

That Tired and Exhausted Feeling Means More Than You Think.

The nervous system is fearfully delicate. It is easily deranged, and when it is, beware. The symptoms are debilty, tired feeling, inability for much work, trembling, anxiety, depression of mind, nervousness and often sleeplessness and dull feeling head in the morning.

These lead to nervous prostration, paralysis or insanity. You run a terrible risk in neglecting any of these symptoms. You can be cured now. If you neglect yourself you will soon become a hopeless wreck, as Mrs. W. A. Tinkham, of Stowe, Vt., did. She writes the following about herself:

"About six months ago I found myself in an extreme nervous condition. This had been gradually growing upon me for several years and I cannot tell what I suffered, it was beyond description. I got no rest or sleep nights and my work was done in constant agony.

"I imagined there was some impending evil constantly hanging over me and could not rid myself of the idea that insanity was in store for me. I knew better than to do lots of things that I did do but could not help it.

"I was indeed a wreck and was on the point of giving up in despair. I employed physicians who did me no good and my condition continually grew worse.

MRS. W. A. TINKHAM.

"Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I commenced taking it and before using the first bottle up there was decided improvement. I have now used most three bottles and am entirely cured of all my troubles.

"I sleep well and my work is easily and comfortably done. In fact, I do all my work for a large family, which I was unable to do before and have not done for five years before taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

"I attribute my cure entirely to this wonderful medicine and most cordially recommend it to all mankind. Please publish this letter for the good of others."

There are countless numbers of persons in different stages of nervous complaints. They are not sick, but are just out of order, have weak nerves and tired bodies. You are one of them and you need Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It cures all such diseases quickly and permanently. Try it, and feel your nerves grow strong and your health return.

It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

Mothers Friend. What is it? Much has been said and written about it but the half has not been told. It is a remedy which if used by Expectant Mothers robs the ordeal through which they all have to pass of an incredible amount of suffering and makes her recovery more rapid. "If a price can be placed on pain, "Mother's Friend" is worth its weight in gold as an alleviator. My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of "Mothers Friend." It is a blessing to any expectant mother, says a customer."

"Hello, Biggs; you look all tired out. Been on a trip?"

"Well, I should say so. I followed the rector clear through the service without any help."

THOUGH we raise about 2,000,000,000 bushels of corn in this country, and it is the principal source of our wealth, but three of the 68,000 post offices in the country recognize its importance by taking its name. These are: Corn, Blount Co., Tenn.; Corn, Mason Co., W. Va.; and Corn Creek, Trimble Co., Ky. There are three "Wheats"—in Alabama, Tennessee, and Texas, respectively; three "Wheatfields"; and 18 "Wheatlands." Oats are recognized in the names of six offices; rye in 12; grass in 30; milk and butter in not a single one, and cheese in but one—Cheeseville, Door Co., Wis.

The Milk Turned Sour.

I will not tell you her name, but one of the neighbors says that during her brief visit the other day the milk turned sour. Her countenance looks a yard long. She sighs perpetually. The cloud on her brow is deep. If beaten out thin, I believe it would cover the sky. Her voice is doleful, and her eyes show no radiance. Her wrinkles are numberless. She is a sorry picture, and all because she is the victim of one of those complaints common to women. Her system is deranged. She needs a course of self-treatment with Dr. Pierces Favorite Prescription. This will eradicate thoroughly those excruciating periodical pains and functional weaknesses incident to her sex, and at the same time build up and invigorate her whole system by its health-impairing influence. A trial bottle will convince.

Filed Objections.

Hon. S. Woods Caldwell, of Lock Haven, the nominee of the Clinton county democratic conferrees for senator in that district, was in Harrisburg Saturday and filed in the Dauphin county court his objections to the nomination of Matthew Savage for the same office. The objections as filed are:

1st. Because the conference which nominated said Matthew Savage was not held under the rules of the democratic party, which political party his nomination is alleged to represent, as required by the second section of the act of assembly of Pennsylvania regulating the nomination and election of public officers, &c., approved the 10th day of June, 1893.

2nd. Because said nomination was made under a rule known as the Orvis rule, which rule, neither at the time of said nomination nor at any other time, has been the rule of the democratic party in said Thirty-fourth senatorial district.

3rd. Because under the rules of the democratic party of said district the three counties, comprising the same, namely, Clearfield, Centre and Clinton, which in said nominating conference were entitled to but three conferrees each, were represented in said conference by the following number of conferrees, to wit: Clearfield, by twelve; Centre, by nine and Clinton, by three; which excessive representation on the part of Clearfield and Centre counties were in violation of the rules of the democratic party and of the rights of Clinton county, whose representation was in strict compliance with the rules of the democratic party of said district, and whose representatives then and there protested against the violation of the rules of the party.

4th. Because said conference being irregular and illegal in its representation, its proceedings, including the nomination of said Matthew Savage, were null and void.

5th. Because the nomination of said Matthew Savage, and the certificate and papers certifying the same are irregular, illegal and void.

Judge McPherson fixed Thursday at 12.30 o'clock as the time for the argument on the objections. In the meantime Mr. Savage is expected to file reasons showing cause why his certificate should be accepted.

Table Talk.

For the housekeeper and the mother, the October issue of "Table Talk" holds much of interest. For the help of the former, three dozen tested recipes are given in the Inquiry Department as well as Menus for many occasions, while the latter will eagerly read much in "The New Bill of Fare" and the Fashion Department. "Another View of Woman's Work," is given by Helen Campbell, our great authority on Domestic Science and Economy. It is well worth the small charge of 10 cents a number, or $1.00 a year. A sample copy, free, is offered to our readers by Table Talk Publishing Co., Philadelphia.

THE English farmers are feeling the competition of Russia and Argentine very severely. They are getting 55 cents a bushel for wheat now, when they thought themselves ruined last year, with wheat selling at 75 cents.

Many "Breezes."

It was a fair audience that greeted Fitz and Webster's "Breezy Time" company in Garman's opera house Tuesday evening, but those who were there, had a good two and a half hours of the most amusing kind of amusement. "A Breezy Time," is intended to make one laugh, and it always fills the bill. There was a wide variety of specialties and comicalities of the most original and laughable character, and it can in truth be said there was not a tiresome spot in the whole production. Fitz and Webster covered themselves with glory and every person on the stage performed his or her part perfectly. The "Turkish Bell Gavotte" captured the house. It is needless to say if ever the company returns to Bellefonte they will receive a royal greeting.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Better and Better.

"Better than grandeur, better than gold
Better than rank a thousand fold,
Is a healthy body, a mind at ease,
And simple pleasures that always please"

To get and keep a healthy body, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a remedy designed to not only cure all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest, but keep the body in a thoroughly healthy condition. It eradicates all impurities from the blood, and overcomes Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Blotches Pimples and eruptions disappear, under its use, and your mind can be "at ease" as to your health.

HUNTINGDON PRESBYTERY.

There is a Meeting Being Held at Reedsville.

Reedsville, October 2.—The presbytery of Huntingdon met in the church at Reedsville, which in its architecture and execution is the finest church building in the presbytery. The representation of ministers and elders is large.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 2 o'clock, p. m., with Rev. J. Diener, of Waterloo, in the chair, who opened the session with a sermon from the text, Revelations ii: 4-5: "Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

"Remember, therefore, from whence thou art fallen, and repent and do the first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly and I will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent."

The sermon was a bold, but true arraignment of the church of to-day. It was listened to with close interest by a large audience and was highly appreciated.

The speaker closed with an earnest appeal to the church to pray and preach and labor for a higher standard of life.

At the close of the sermon, the moderator constituted presbytery with prayer and after the usual roll call the following officers were elected by acclamation.

For moderator, Rev. S. S. Berger, of Belleville; for recording clerk, Rev. S. T. Lewis, of Osceola, and for reading clerk, Mr. F. B. Reed, of Clearfield.

Considerable time was gained by the fact that the minutes of the last regular meeting had been acted upon at a previous adjourned meeting, but the time was lost again and energy wasted by a weary discussion as to the legality of the procedure.

The Rev. H. S. Welty, who came from the presbytery of Lehigh and is serving the Lost Creek church, at McAllisterville, in an acceptable manner, was received by the presbytery. He stood an excellent examination on church history and will be examined to-morrow on the other branches. Presbytery adjourned at 5 o'clock and will meet to-night to listen to the missionary sermon to be preached by the Rev. W. H. Decker, of Lewistown.

Wilson will Win.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The election in the Second West Virginia district, in which Mr. Wilson is the candidate, is attracting a great deal of attention at the headquarters of the Democratic campaign committee. Mr. Faulkner, chairman of the committee, said this afternoon that Mr. Wilson would at once plunge into the work of the campaign immediately upon his arrival and that, when he reached his district, he would find things well advanced and the interest growing day by day. Mr. Faulkner admits that a very strong fight is being put up against the chairman of the ways and means committee, but says there can be no doubt as to the success of the author of the new tariff law.

The Republicans are making a big effort to throw the mining vote to the Republican candidate, the argument made against Mr. Wilson being that if he should be elected he will make another effort to place coal on the free list.

Encouraging reports were said by Mr. Faulkner to have been received to-day from Mr. Enloe's district, the Eighth Tennessee, against whom a most determined and vigorous fight is being waged. Mr. Faulkner predicts the return of Mr. Enloe, although his majority, he thought, might be cut down somewhat.

HARRISON SPEAKS.

hort and Pointed Talk on the Tariff Question.

LOSS WITHOUT COMPENSATION.

e Are at the Bottom of the Well, and Might Get Out Even Now if There Was Not Danger from Above, but the Democrats Insist That if They Have Their Way They Will Sink Us Deeper—The Remedy is a Big Republican Victory This Year.

In opening the campaign in Indiana as resident of a meeting at which the principal speaker was Governor McKinley, of hio, ex-President Harrison made a short peech that is full of good points. He said:

"My fellow citizens: the delightfu uty has been assigned to me by the state entral committee of the Republican party f Indiana to preside over this meeting. I m to be its chairman, not its speaker, nd I congratulate you on that fact. I otice in the audience here today, with reat satisfaction, the presence of many f our older fellow citizens. The old men re fond of talking of the "good old imes," but to the times to which they ooked back to with so much delight, the rocess of nature and of providence have overed the things that were hard and rought out in the memory those things hat were sweet and pleasant. But the ood old times which they have in mind, owever, are not good old times, but very oung good times.

VERY YOUNG GOOD TIMES.

"So young that only the unweaned abes have no memory of them. Only wo years ago this country was not only he most prosperous country in the world —for that it has been before—but it stood pon the highest pinnacle of prosperity hat it had ever before attained. This is ot the verdict of politicians; it is the verdict of the commercial reporter; it is the xpressed opinion of those men who make profession of studying business conditions. The last two years have been years f distress and disaster.

"The great national losses, like those f the civil war, have sometimes their dequate compensation. Great as was he cost of the war for the Union we feel hat it was adequately compensated in the dded glory that was given to the flag nd in the added security that was given o our civil institutions and the unity of he nation. But the losses of the last two ears have no such compensating thought. There is no good to be gotten out of them laughter), except for guidance. They eem to have been of a retributive nature, ike the swamp into which a traveler as unwarily driven, that has no ameliorating suggestion except as they teach him o keep on the foot hills and on the roads hat are on the hill tops. We are told hat the rich were getting richer and the oor poorer, and so to cure that imaginary ll our political opponents have brought n a time when everybody is getting oorer.

"I think I remember to have heard once f an inscription upon a tombstone that an something like this: 'I was well; I hought to be better; I took medicine and as I lie.' (Laughter and applause.) Our mocratic friends have passed the tariff ill that is approved—so far as I can earn—by six Democratic senators and by obody else. (Laughter.) We hear of a ittle coterie of senators whose names I ould not mention, perhaps—for they have ot been well identified, but their number as generally been fixed at a round half ozen—who decided what the tariff bill hould be and they are pleased with it nd nobody else.

CONDEMNED BY ALL.

"Mr. Cleveland has repudiated it, and as declared that it involves 'perfidy and ishonor,' that it was so shameful in its haracter and in the influences that proced it that he would not even put his ame to it. All of the leading Democratic apers in the country have condemned it —both of the old stalwart variety and of he mugwump variety. The Democratic hairman of the ways and means committee had condemned it, and the entire Demcratic majority in the house of representatives. Now that is a great misfortune. It is a misfortune that the Demoratic party was not able to evolve a tariff hat that party would accept as a settlement of the tariff question. But it is not ccepted as a settlement. In the very nature of things a bill thus passed and thus haracterized cannot be a settlement.

"If we could have been told by our Demoratic friends that we were at the bottom f the well, dark, damp and dismal as it , we would have begun to look up to see whether we could not find a star of hope; e would have begun to anoint our bruises nd try to behold some scaffold by which e might climb out. But we are told that here are lower depths yet in store for us. nd so this country is to be held in a tate of suspense upon these questions. can be ended in just one way, and that by overwhelming Republican victories November.

ASSURANCE IN VOTES.

"When New York gives Levi P. Morton 75,000 majority and Indiana her state icket 25,000 and Illinois and those states hat have wavered fall again into line nd the next congress is Republican there ill be assurance that we have found the nd of this disastrous condition. (Cheers.) think the Ohio Democrats, the other ay, declared that all these disasters of hich we speak came upon the country nder the McKinley bill. Well, to be , the McKinley bill was a law ll the 29th day, was it, of August, hen the Gorman bill was passed, ut it was a law only in name. It ad been arrested. We were listening rom day to day to prophecies that in two eeks or three or four it would be reealed. It was not a law in the sense hat any merchant or manufacturer ould act upon it. It was dead, in substance, though alive on the statute books. Why sir, it would be just as reasonable o complain of a man who had been eized, handcuffed and locked up in a cell or not supporting his family as to complain that the McKinley bill did not give rosperity during this period of suspense.

"And then we are told that under the cKinley bill the price of wool went own—and that since it has been made ree it is going up; that sugar on the free st was higer than sugar with a 40 per ent. duty, and all this, notwithstanding he old Democratic doctrine that duty has lways added to the cost of domestic arcles."

KEEP up the work and you will feel all he better when the vote is counted and ou see the result partly due to your efforts.

THE SUGAR CURED CONGRESS.

(Tune: "The Old Oaken Bucket.")

How dear to our hearts is our Democratic congress,
As hopeless inaction presents it to view;
The bill of poor Wilson, the deep tangled tariff,
And every mad pledge that their lunacy knew;
The widespread depression, the mills that closed by it,
The rock of free silver where great Grover fell;
They've busted our country, no use to deny it,
And, darn the old party, it's busted as well.
This G. Cleveland's congress,
This Queen Lilly congress,
This wild free trade congress
We all love so well.

Their moss covered pledges we no longer treasure,
For often at noon when out hunting a job,
We find that instead of the corn they had promised,
They've given us nothing—not even a cob.
How ardent we've cussed 'em with lips overflowing
With sulphurous blessings as great swear words fell,
The emblems of hunger, free trade and free silver,
Are sounding in sorrow the workingman's knell.
This bank breaking congress,
This mill closing congress,
This starvation congress
We all love so well.

How sweet from their eloquent lips to receive it,
"Cursed tariff protection no longer uphold."
We listened—and voted our dinner pails empty,
The factories silent, the furnaces cold.
And now far removed from our lost situations,
The tear of regret doth intrusively swell,
We yearn for Republican administration
And sigh for the congress that served us so well.
This Fifty-third congress,
This Democrat congress,
This sugar cured congress
We wish was in ——.

MINERS FOR HASTINGS.

Secretary McBryde Says the Republican Candidate Will Get the Votes.

Discussing candidates for governor at Columbus a few days ago Secretary McBryde, of the United Mine Workers, paid General Hastings a compliment which may be taken as a pointer on the sort of majorities he will have in the mining counties, for when the coal miners have a chance to show their opinion of either a friend or an enemy they don't often miss it.

Secretary McBryde said: It is not often that a candidate for governor does as much honor to his party as his party does to him, but this can safely be said of General Hastings, the Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania. General Hastings is thoroughly in accord with organized labor. As a coal separator he always preferred to do business with the officials of the union, and many a difficulty "Dan" has helped the boys to smooth over. He has always been an inveterate foe to the "pluck me" system, and would have none of it about his works. He always paid his men semimonthly in cash. Whoever in the Republican party may be assailed, its candidate for governor of Pennsylvania is above reproach in the eyes of a coal miner.

Secretary McBryde worked in Pennsylvania mines for many years, and is closer to the miners of that state than any other official of the national organization. A determined effort has been made, by sending men into the coal regions to make Populist speeches, to seduce Republican votes away from the Republican ticket on the mere ground that the head of the ticket in Pennsylvania has been a coal operator. Secretary McBryde does not meddle with politics except when the interests of the coal miners are involved, and it is doubtless the knowledge of this Democratic scheme to win miners' votes away from a man who has been their staunch friend which has prompted him to speak out so plainly.

A CHALLENGE TO SINGERLY.

The state Democratic newspapers are much worried since General Hastings inaugurated his campaign tour, because of the interest manifested by the people in the discussion of the issue in this year's contest, and have been seeking to create the impression that there was a local or state issue involved, and that General Hastings was afraid to meet it. They could not answer the arguments presented in favor of the Republican view of the single issue, and sought to get away from it by their cry of "state issues." General Hastings effectually silenced them on this point in one of his recent speeches in which he said:

"The Democratic party and its representatives inquire why it is that we do not discuss state issues, and in reply to this I desire to say again that we have no state issues to discuss. All the laws on the statute books for the past thirty years have been placed there by the Republican party. If the Democratic party, through its distinguished candidate, desires to discuss those laws or any one of them I am willing to meet the candidate, a gentleman for whom I have the highest personal regard through long years of friendship. But thus far there has been no enemy in sight, and I take it that this cry of state issues is merely a device to draw away our attention from the great question of the tariff reform failure of the Democracy, a subject that is bread and butter to every workingman in America tonight."

That's the situation in a nutshell, and there is no getting away from it.

HE HAS ENOUGH OF IT.

This is the way a well known colored Democrat of Washington, D. C., puts it in writing to a local organization and announcing his retirement from the party of free trade:

"During my absence from the city I received notification of my appointment to a prominent place on one of the committees of your organization. While thankful for the honor and recognition, I respectfully decline to act.

"From 1864, when McClellan was our candidate, in the days of the war, until the present year, I have unhesitatingly given my time, labor and means in advocating Democratic principles, and still remain firm to my early teachings. But I am disgusted beyond measure, or expression, at the attitude of the so called Democracy of the present hour, and I have concluded to retire temporarily from active participation in any struggle for political supremacy in this campaign. I could be of no service to you, for I have no heart in the work.

"I have sacrificed considerable of my means and labor in the past for Democracy. I shall devote my efforts hereafter for the welfare of my family—an honest party—who need my services in placing provisions in the wigwam and coal in the cellar, and who will appreciate my efforts."

A DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

A Woodsman Knocked Down and Robbed of Eighty Dollars.

Saturday afternoon, says the Lock Haven Express, Charles Boyer, aged 53 years, a resident of Julian, Centre county, was robbed of eighty dollars in this city by a man named James McKenzie. The robbery was committed in the alley between Church and Main streets a short distance below Hanna street. Boyer had been working for some time at Mix's lumber job near North Bend and Saturday morning he drew his pay amounting to eighty-four dollars and came to this city intending to go to his home at Julian by the afternoon train on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad. At North Bend he made the acquaintance of McKenzie and the two came to this city together. The two men were together all day up to the time the robbery was committed.

When it came near time for Boyer to go to the station to take the train McKenzie accompanied him, and persuaded Boyer to go out into the alley and take a drink of whiskey out of a bottle he had in his pocket. While Boyer was drinking McKenzie struck him a powerful blow which knocked him down, and then he took Boyer's purse containing the money and ran. Boyer called for help and a number of persons ran to the spot but the robber was fleet of foot and made his escape into Woodward township by crossing the river on the dam. Constable Myers started in pursuit of the fugitive but failed to find him.

About 3 o'clock Sunday morning Officer John Brendel saw a man acting suspiciously in the vicinity of the passenger depot, and from the description he had received of the robber concluded he was the man wanted.

The officer was right in his conjectures for when he approached the stranger he started out Washington street on a run with the policeman close after him. He refused to stop when called upon to do so, but three bullets from the policeman's revolver sent whizzing past his head brought him to a standstill. Brendel arrested the man and lodged him in jail, where he denied all knowledge of the robbery. Sunday morning, however, he admitted to the policeman that he had robbed Boyer, and told Brendel he had hid the purse near where he committed the crime. The officers went at once to the place designated by McKenzie and found the purse which contained eight bank notes of the denomination of ten dollars, a total of eighty dollars.

Boyer was delighted when he learned that the money had been recovered. McKenzie will be given a hearing this afternoon. He is charged with assault and battery with intent to rob and steal, robbery and larceny. He is a man of about 29 years, is very strong and injured Boyer severely when he struck him.

The city rang yesterday with praises for policeman Brendel who arrested McKenzie. He has the reputation of being a desperate man and his arrest by Brendel, single handed and alone in the night, fairly entitles the officer to the praise he is receiving.

One Hold-Up Prevented.

St. Joseph, Mo., October 2.—During the past two weeks the Rock Island railroad has expected one of their night passenger trains to be held up a few miles east of this city The company had a detective named Hickman in the camp of the outlaws and were fully informed in regard to the plans of the gang. Information was received today that an attempt would be made tonight to rob the west bound express train, and as it was feared the robbers would use a large quantity of dynamite, the company decided to anticipate the robbery and if possible capture the gang Accordingly this morning a squad of officers made a descent on the camp of the desperadoes sixteen miles east of this city, and after a desperate fight succeeded in arresting two men. Three others escaped into the woods but are being chased by a well armed posse and will soon be captured. The men under arrest are Lee Frizzel and Fred Jones and are both ex-convicts.

TO KEEP HER YOUTH, a woman must keep her health. All the "beautifiers" in the world won't do as much for you as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With that, you can see the good that's done, as well as feel it. That regulates all the womanly functions, improves your digestion, enriches your blood, brings refreshing sleep, and builds up, strengthens, and repairs every part of your system.

In every one of the "female complaints" and weaknesses that make women old and miserable, the "Prescription" will certainly cure. It's the only guaranteed remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in the case of every weak or suffering woman, she'll have her money back.

You pay only for the good you get.

A great many medicines "relieve" Catarrh in the Head. That means that it's driven from the head into the throat and lungs. But, by its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy perfectly and permanently cures.

Living Questions

Are most esteemed by every intelligent man and woman. Derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels speedily present to us the living question of obtaining relief. It is at once found in Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure sick headache, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, etc. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, they are unequaled as a specific for the complaints named. One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet a dose. In vials, 25 cents. Carry them in your vest-pocket.

License Taxes.

Lock Haven has passed an ordinance to collect license taxes for the purpose of increasing the revenues of the city. It might be a good thing for Bellefonte to do likewise. Following is the schedule of rates fixed upon:

For every one horse dray, $3; two horse dray, $5; one horse vehicle conveying passengers for hire, $3; two horse vehicle conveying passengers for hire, $5; hack, $5; omnibus, $5; brewery wagon, $10; milk wagon, $5; bakery wagon, $2; express, $15; one horse bottler's wagon, $5; two horse bottler's wagon, $10; mill wagon, $5; one horse oil wagon, $3; two horse oil wagon, $5; one horse ice wagon, $3; two horse ice wagon, $5.

Every telegraph company, electric light company, street railway company and telephone company having poles erected within the limits of the city shall pay annually for each pole erected the sum of fifty cents.

Every steam heating company, having pipes laid in the streets of the city shall pay annually $50.

Every gas company shall pay annually $25.

Every owner of a private sewer laid in any of the streets or alleys of the city who charges compensation for connecting therewith shall pay annually $25.

They Will Not Appeal.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 2.—When asked today whether the Evangelical church case would be taken to the United States supreme court, George F. Baer, who was the leading attorney for the Dubs faction, said: "Oh, no; the decision of the state supreme court will be taken as final."

"How soon will the Esher Bowman party take possession?" was asked.

"As soon as the defeated party can conveniently get out," was the reply.

It is probable that a general meeting of the Dubs faction will be held Wednesday night, when a plan of action will be decided upon. It is altogether probable that they will unite and erect a new church. Some Esher people, fearing that the South Sixth street church and Sunday school organs and other articles, might be carried away, as was done in the west, officers have been employed to watch the property. A number of persons signed a paper to-day to stand by Rev. Sampsel as their pastor and go with him to another place to worship if necessary and also to recognize Rev. S. S. Chubb as their presiding elder.

Table Talk.

For the housekeeper and the mother, the October issue of Table Talk holds much of interest. For the help of the former, three dozen tested recipes are given in the Inquiry Department as well as Menus for many occasions, while the latter will eagerly read much in "The New Bill of Fare" and the Fashion Department. "Another View of Woman's Work" is given by Helen Campbell, our great authority on Domestic Science and Economy. It is well worth the small charge of 10 cents a number, or $1.00 per year. A sample copy, free is offered to our readers by Table Talk Publishing Co., Philadelphia.

Finally Made A Nomination.

Williamsport, Pa., October 2.—The longest, hottest and most stubborn congressional deadlock that the sixteenth district ever knew, came to an end at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Frederick C. Leonard, of Potter county, received the unanimous vote of the conference and was declared the nominee. There were 573 ballots taken during the month that the conference was off and on in session. During all that time, with the exception of the last session to-day, Tioga and Lycoming voted for Horace B. Packer, and Potter and Clinton for W. I. Lewis and Congressman Hopkins. The latter was the first to withdraw, followed this forenoon by the other two, and the names of Leonard and Cameron was then presented, resulting in the nomination of the Potter county man. The nomination is a happy conclusion of the long drawn out contest, and gives hearty satisfaction.

Great Storm Predicted by Hicks.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2.—According to Rev. I. B. Hicks, a local forecaster of some note, of this city, a tremendous atmospherical disturbance is speeding southward from Montana and the Dakotas, and is due in St. Louis within the next twenty four hours. Its course will include the Great Lakes and the entire interior, creating havoc and possibly reaching the fatal dimensions of the tragic wind that swept over north Iowa and Minnesota last month.

—Mrs. Letitia P. Wilson, chairman of organizing committee of State Board of Children's Aid Society of Western Pennsylvania, will address a meeting at W. C. T. U. rooms on Friday evening, Oct 5th, at 7½ o'clock. All interested in the welfare of children cordially invited to be present.

The Golden Star Gold Mining Company

OF MONTANA.

Capital $300,000 divided into 300,000 shares of $1 par value each.

Non-assessable forever.

This company owns two gold mines located in a county which produced $40,000,000 in gold in six years. Has 45 acres of virgin land. Has 500 feet of underground work in shape of shafts and tunnels. Has ore in sight worth $100 per ton. Has assays from $25 to $1,500 per ton. Has shipped ore netting $36 per ton. Has such a small capitalization, only 300,000 shares and not 2,000,000 shares as other companies.

The company intends to sink a shaft through this rich $100 ore vein to a depth of several hundred feet, in order to be able to produce largely for the benefit of the stockholders which will get this profit in large monthly dividends. Hence the company offers a small amount of its stock at the extremely low price of 35 cents a share.

These shares are the investment on the financial market to-day and are better than Government Bonds as they will pay bigger interest.

LUTHERANS AT LEWISTOWN.

What the Central Pennsylvania Conference Did Yesterday.

Lewistown, Pa., September 28.—The evening session of the synod yesterday was entirely devoted to Home Missions. A sermon was delivered by Rev. J. W. Henderson from the text, Revelations, 11:15. Theme, "The Universal Reign of Christ; the Final Triumph of Our Savior's Kingdom Upon the Earth." Rev. A. S. Hartman, D. D., followed with an address upon the importance of home missions.

The synod opened this morning with devotional services. The first order of business was appointing special committees.

First. Devotional Service—Rev. A. H. Spangler, J. A. Earnest, D. D., Mr. S. L. Brower.

Second. On communication from W. H. Diven to Treasurer of Synod—Revs. W. H. Schoch, Charles T. Fickenger, W. D. E. Scott.

Mr. W. T. Horton, treasurer, by consent of synod made his report. The auditing committee followed with a report on the treasurer's report. The secretary was ordered to summarize the treasurer's report, giving membership, amount apportioned, amount contributed, excess, deficit, and percentage of each congregation. Ordered that no money be permitted to be reported on parochial reports that was not in the treasurer's hands before September 1, 1894.

Rev. S. E. Smith and A. H. Spangler requested their names to be recorded on the negative.

Following unfinished business acted on: Resolution concerning reporting convention and wo. kings of synod to the Lutheran Evangelist tabled.

Committee on transportation, advisory board, committee on minutes of synod, committee on minutes northeast conference, examining committee of seminary at Gettysburg then handed in their reports.

On motion Rev. H. H. Weber, secretary board church extension, was granted a seat in synod.

Adjourned with prayer by Rev. E. E. Deitrich.

AFTERNOON

Opened with devotional exercises.

Committee on office of deaconess appointed Rev. W. K. Diehl, J. M. Rorick, Charles T. Aikens.

Committee on ministerial education, papers of St. Mark's congregation, Perry county; application of Ick burg charge, communication from W. H. Diven to treasurer; Tressler's Orphans' Home; directors of Theological seminary at Gettysburg; Juniata conference then reported.

The following delegates to the general synod were elected: Clerical, Rev. C. L. McConnell, A. H. Spangler, C. B. Gruver, C. T. Aikens, W. D. E. Scott; alternates, Rev. J. A. Earnest, D. E., E. E. Hoshou, G. W. Leisher, J. M. Rearick, Charles Fickinger. Lay, Messrs. Chas. A. Miller, Clement Dale, Esq., I. T. Ruble, James A. Price, D. M. Marshall. Alternates, J. T. McCormick, G. W. Himmelruch, Uriah Shuman, A. K. Dobbs. ——Beek.

A series of resolutions relative to the Lutheran Evangelist were adopted.

A resolution was adopted as follows:

Resolved, That a new double form of treasurer's receipt be prepared to be sent to the remitter so as to enable the remitter to retain one receipt and forward the duplicate to the secretary of synod at the close of the financial year.

Synod then adjourned with prayer by Professor Houtz.

Soldiers Monument.

Thirty years have passed since the close of the democratic slave holders rebellion and although Centre County furnished more soldiers for that war, in proportion to its population, than any other county in the state, yet the defenders of the union, of this county, have no monument to record their deeds of valor, as a grateful tribute to their honorable service to their government and mankind. Occasionally a patriotic person will propose the erection of a monument to Centre county's patriotic dead, but there the proposition ends. Lately Gregg Post, G. A. R. of Bellefonte, has proposed to contribute five hundred dollars for the erection of a monument and a patriotic citizen has offered to contribute one thousand dollars for the same purpose. What is needed is for the G. A. R. to appoint an energetic committee to work the matter up, and we have no doubt that the required amount could be raised.—Hornet.

The Jumping Bean.

The jumping bean is the latest curiosity which is finding its way inland. They are the seeds of a tree or shrub found only in one part of the world. Each bean contains a wonderfully formed worm with sixteen feet. The worms live in their shells nine or ten months, from August until May, and there is no hole or other indications of the way in which the worm entered the shell. It is believed that the egg producing the worm was early laid in the flower. The bean is as sensitive to touch, sudden flashes of light or instant change to darkness, as a sensitive plant. By a curious mechanical combination between the elastic structure of the wall of the seed and the animal's muscles erratic movements are produced. When laid on any flat surface the bean will jump clear off, turn complete somersaults and then continually hop, jump and dance; its movement is wonderfully fascinating; it contradicts the law of gravitation, for while sealed in its own house it can move both itself and house miles away. If the worm is removed from its shell it will attempt to form another covering for itself.

The worm positively lives without food and has no desire to escape from its shell; on the contrary it seems to be comfortable only when enclosed air-tight in its shell. If a small hole is carefully bored or cut in the shell, the worm instantly sets to work to repair the damage and in a short time will have the hole sealed with a silky web. After this is done the worm will again begin its tireless and almost incessant jumping and dancing almost all day and night.

The Assault on Appomattox.

"He comes from Appomattox and its famous apple tree," quoted Roscoe Conkling in placing General Grant in nomination before the Chicago Convention in 1880. The Post Office Department has done what it could to make the historic couplet pointless by changing the post office name of Appomattox to Surrender. Could anything be more silly, unpatriotic and unwarranted? The Virginians are scandalized by this obliteration of one of the ancient names of the Old Dominion. What old soldier, what patriot, what man of sense will not revolt at the extinction of a name made famous and historic by the surrender there of Lee's army to General Grant?

Only a very Democratic official, one of the ancient peace-at-any-price-copperhead stripe, would think of erasing from the post office rolls the name of Appomattox. The reason given for this gross vandalism is that there is an Appomattox Station on the Norfolk & Western Railroad near Appomattox Court House, and letters intended for one Appomattox were constantly being received at the other. The name of the junior Appomattox, the station, was changed to Nebraska, but this not sufficing to prevent people misdirecting their letters, the name of the old Appomattox was suppressed too, and changed to Surrender. It was well enough to object to Appomattox Station. The duplication of names of towns or the use of names nearly similar for towns in the same county is a nuisance which breeds confusion, annoyance and errors innumerable and ought to be discountenanced, and, where possible, prevented. It was well to enjoin Appomattox Station, but to abolish the postal name of Appomattox Court House, which had come in custom to be shortened to Appomattox simply, which had been for years its post office name, and which meant much to everyone who heard it, was the act of barbarism and ignorance.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell is the apologist and probably the author of this change. The county seat of Appomattox County is removed from Appomattox Court House to the place which the railroad called Appomattox Station, and which the Post Office Department first called Nebraska and now Appomattox, It is now the county seat, while the court house at old Appomattox has been burned to the ground, and, what is worse, its famous name has been taken from it.

For the country at large there is but one Appomattox. It has become a shrine for pilgrims, who leave the train at the bogus Appomattox and take stages to visit the scene of the great act which terminated the war. Appomattox is a sacred place on which no Postmaster General or his assistant should lay his impious hands. Its filched name should be restored. The Post Office Department, which is trying to rob it of its birthright and call it out of its name, deserves to be pilloried for its rank stupidity, which in this instance is certainly colossal and unpardonable, and we believe unprecedented in our history.

Two Men Burned to Death.

Nanimo, B. C., September 28.—Two men were burned to death, two other men and a little girl were badly injured and $100,000 worth of property was destroyed by a fire that broke out here at 5 o'clock this morning. The fire started at the corner of Wharf and Commercial streets, in the Royal hotel, which was burned. Patrick Mayce, a boot black, and a barber known as "Fritz," employes in the hotel, were burned to death. Three guests were badly injured. The flames spread in a northerly direction, along Wharf street, destroying the fire hall, and Nanimo hotel, C. Stevens' s drug store and five small frame buildings.

That the newer part of the town was not completely burned was due to the absence of wind and to the vigorous work of the volunteer fire brigade.

What "We" Means in Our columns.

Some one who wants to explain what editorial "we" signifies says it has a variety of meanings, varied to suit the circumstances. For an example: When you read that "we expect our wife home today," we refer to the editor in chief; when it is "we are a little late with our work," it includes the whole office force, even to the devil and the towel; in "we are having a boom," the town is meant; "we received over 700,000 last year," it embraces the nation; but "we have hog cholera in our midst," only means the man who takes the paper and does not pay for it is very ill.

—Have you been in the new flower store, in the McClain block? If you have not, you should step in and see the many beautiful plants. Mr. George Baldwin, the proprietor, is a genial young gentleman and will take pleasure in showing you his assortment of plants.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.

The Trial of Professor Shortlidge for Murder—Found Not Guilty.

Media, Pa., Sept 27.—The trial of Professor S. C. Shortlidge for the murder of his wife was resumed this morning. The defense had began to show its side of the case, and as the fact of the shooting was not in dispute, the trial has resolved itself into a contest between the medical men. Most of those who testified to-day were physicians who examined Shortlidge during his illness and in jail.

Dr. W. T. Dickeson, who was called in to examine him on the 15th of January to determine whether or not he was insane, testified that he found him lying on the floor, partly dressed and in a demented condition of mind.

Dr. D. W. Jeffries, one of the commission appointed by the court to examine the prisoner; Dr. J. L. Forwood, and Dr. Mills, of Philadelphia, also testified. The former found the defendant with dilated eyes and pulse at 100. His arteries were like those of an aged man and he was suffering with melancholia, a form of insanity.

Dr. D. D. Richardson, in charge of the male department of the Norristown insane asylum, gave a detailed statement of the patient's condition when he arrived and while confined at the institution, the substance of which was that Professor Shortlidge was insane at the time of the shooting and when admitted to the asylum.

The testimony of the defense closed, the commonwealth presented its experts on insanity in rebuttal. Dr. Chapin, of Philadelphia, did not think it had been established that Shortlidge was insane. His condition heretofore was that of a man greatly depressed. He did not believe that the professor had a delusion. He believed he had a knowledge of his acts and was not legally insane or entirely irresponsible for what he did. His condition he thought, when he saw him, might have been caused by the excessive uses of cocaine or some other drug.

Dr. F. X. Burkin, specialist on nervous and mental diseases, testified similarly to Dr. Chapin. He examined the professor and from what he saw of him and had heard he gave it as his opinion that he was not mentally irresponsible at the time of the killing.

District Attorney Shaffer then made the closing argument for the commonwealth and was followed by counsel for the defense.

After being closeted about an hour and a half the jury returned a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity. The verdict was not much of a surprise and after it was announced Professor Shortlidge was heartily congratulated by friends who crowded around him. He was remanded to the Norristown asylum until cured or released by death.

Professor Shortlidge, in company with his brother, Dr. Evan Shortlidge, and Dr. Richardson, left Media for the insane asylum at Norristown at 8 o'clock. The professor's condition is greatly improved, and Dr. Richardson says he is now convalescent. He was perfectly cognizant of all that took place during the trial He was under a great strain, and it is expected that he will have a set back after the reaction takes place. He will probably remain in the asylum for some time, but his ultimate recovery is expected, when, on petition to the court, he can be released.

—Two men escaped from Huntingdon reformatory Thursday afternoon. Both were five feet seven inches tall, medium build. Both had gray uniforms and caps and heavy shoes. $25 reward for each of them. Arrest and telegraph T. B. Patton, general superintendent.

Coal and Coke Tonnage.

The Pennsylvania railroad reports that the quantity of coal and coke originating on and carried over its lines east of Pittsburg and Erie for the year thus far has been 10,493,516 tons, compared with 13,349,307 tons in the corresponding period of 1893, a decrease of 2,865,791 tons, of which 8,418,877 tons were coal, a decrease of 1,724,987 tons, and 2,074,639 tons coke, a decrease of 1,130,804 tons.

—Street Commissioner Shaughensey has a force of men at work widening the sewers and raising the streets at the intersection of Spring and Lamb streets, near the new armory. It is needless to say it will be a vast improvement when the work is completed.

THE NEW YORK

FAMILY STORY PAPER

FOR 1894.

The twenty-first year since the birth of this paper finds it attaining its legal majority.

As a matter of fact

The New York Family Story Paper

Has, for years, been the giant of all weekly periodicals, it having the largest circulation of any similar paper in the world.

The signal achievement of the year now drawing to a close was the addition of four Webb Perfecting presses, each with a capacity of 100,000 complete copies per day, to twenty-two flat presses heretofore used in the home of the FAMILY STORY PAPER. All these presses are kept running at their full capacity every day, and that will give some little idea of the enormous number (running into the millions) of FAMILY STORY PAPERS and FAMILY STORY PAPER SPECIALS, printed and distributed each week.

Its splendid staff of authors, consisting of Mrs. Lillian R. Drayton,

Mrs. Geraldine Fleming,

The Hebrew New Year.

On Sunday evening last at sunset the Hebrew year 5654 will have been gathered to its fathers, and the New Year 5655, according to the Hebrew calendar, will be ushered in with the devout prayers of every Isrealite. Rosh Hashono and Yum Kippur—the Day of Atonement—which latter occurs on Wednesday, October 10th, are the great Hebrew religious holidays. The Hebrew New Year is a time of rejoicing and merrymaking, family reunions and similar festivities. The orthodox Hebrews celebrate Tuesday also, the holiday lasting from sunset on Sunday to starlight on Tuesday.

—In 1890 a train on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, at Lock Haven ran into a cab drawn by two horses, the property of Peter Meitzler, and driven by a colored man. The cab was crushed to pieces and the horses slightly injured, but fortunately and almost miraculously two men who were in the cab escaped uninjured. Meitzler brought suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company for $600 damages for the loss of his cab. Yesterday the case was tried at Lock Haven resulting in a verdict for the railroad company. It was proven that the driver was intoxicated and consequently insensible to the danger present when the accident happened. T. C. Hipple Esq., was attorney for the railroad company.

MURDERED BY ROBBERS.

Another Horrible Crime Perpetrated in Luzerne County.

Wilkesbarree, Sept. 28.—The boarding house of Evan Kavan at Miners' Mills, was broken into last night by four masked robbers. Kavan was aroused by the noise and jumped out of bed to defend his home, whereupon he was shot dead. The murderers escaped.

Further particulars of the tragedy show it to be a very brutal affair. The murdered man's name is Stephen Politzka, who was known to the English speaking residents as Edward Kavan.

The murder took place between 11 and 12 o'clock.

Politzka and his wife retired early, and shortly after 11 o'clock the wife was aroused by a loud noise on the outside of the house. She called her husband, who got out of bed and went to a window. He saw four men, as he thought, disguised. He ordered them to leave the premises at once. They replied by inviting him to come out, as they wanted to see him on business.

Politzka then went to a bureau drawer and procured a revolver. He again warned the men to leave, and failing to do so, Politzka opened fire which was returned by one of the men, the bullet striking Politzka over the heart and he fell dead at the window. The murderer and his accomplices then fled. There is no question but that the motive of the crime was robbery.

The scene of the tragedy was about one mile from the spot where "Red Nosed Mike" and two other Italian brigands murdered Paymaster McClure and his assistant, Bernard Flanagan, six years ago. The authorities are thoroughly aroused over the frequency of crime in Luzerne county the past year, this being the second murder within ten days and about the ninth murder in the course of twelve months.

Pasting Must be Left to the Voters.

Probably the best feature of the existing ballot law, and one that outweighs many times all its defects, is that which does away with ticket peddling and buttonhole electioneering at the polling places. Under the law the ballots are printed and placed in the hands of the election officers from whom the voters must secure them before entering the compartments in which the marking is done. The disappearance of the ward heelers who formerly annoyed the voters with their persistent importunity at the polls has proved a great relief, and any return to the former practice in this respect would meet with protests loud and emphatic.

Judge Wilson, of this city, has rendered a decision which still further establishes not only the independence of the citizen, but his absolute right to do his own voting He has decided that election officers are election officers and nothing else, and that their duties are confined to handing out the printed ballots, receiving, registering and counting the votes as cast and certifying to the result. The case under consideration was that of an election officer who pasted stickers upon the ballots for an office that had been forgotten in making the party nominations. The Court's decision that if any stickers are to be pasted upon the official ballots it must be done by the voter. No one else has a right to do it.

The decision is not only sound in law, but it is clearly in the interest of intelligent, independent and honest voting. In the case at issue no public harm would have followed if the pasted stickers had been voted and counted, but if the right of the election officers to tamper with the ballots in any form had been given legal sanction, infinite harm might have resulted.—Philadelphia Times.

Arbor Day Suggestions.

The following notice has been issued, regarding the celebration of Arbor Day, by the department of public instruction:

"The custom of planting trees is a mark of civilization. Their uses for shade and ornament, for furnishing sustenance to man and beast, are well known. The value of timber in the arts that conduce to man's well being is equally apparent. The function of our wooded areas in condensing the moisture of the air and causing a more even distribution of rain throughout the year is not so well understood, and hence deserves to be made a subject of instruction to the schools. Moreover the fearful destruction of recent forest fires show the necessity for more intelligent care of the timbered lands of America and for a wider dissemination of the first principals of forestry.

"Numerous and cogent are the reasons for the celebration of Arbor Day in all the public schools. And since very many of the rural schools close before the two days appointed as Arbor Days in the spring of the year, it is wise to perpetuate the custom of celebrating an Arbor Day in the fall. The department of public instruction, therefore, recommends the observance of Friday, October 19, as Autumn Arbor Day, and earnestly urges teachers and superintendents to adopt a suitable program of exercises, including the planting of one or more trees. Among other things, let attention be drawn to the fact that it is best to plant native trees."

The Explosion of a Bomb

startles all within hearing. So the pains which arise from derangements of the liver stomach and bowels, quickly alarm those who experience them. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets afford a speedy and inexpensive cure. Sick headache, bilious headache, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks yield like magic to this wonderful specific. Only one tiny, sugar-coated Pellet for a laxative dose. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. The action is prompt and pleasant. Absolutely the best Liver Pill made. Your money given back if they do not give entire satisfaction. The only pill possessed of such merit as to warrant their being sold on trial!

Another Japanese Army.

London, Sept. 26.—A dispatch from Tokia says that the second Japanese army for field service, mobilized at Hiroshima, and consisting of 30,000 men, under the command of Field Marshal Count Oyama, embarked yesterday, amid intense enthusiasm.

The emperor, previous to their departure, reviewed the troops, and the transports, escorted by the second Japanese squadron, sailed away, their destination being unknown, although it is reported vaguely that the squadron is bound for the Yellow sea.

During the absence from Japan of Field Marshal Count Oyama, who is also minister of war, the minister of marine will assume the duties of minister of war in addition to his other responsibilities.

It is officially announced at Tokio, says another dispatch, that the report that an armistice has been proposed by England and Russia is untrue.

A BEGINNING has been made toward the fulfillment of the implied contract with the Government of the United States for the removal of the river islands. A sub-committee of Councils' committee on commerce and navigation has directed the introduction of two ordinances, one appropriating $1,500,000 for the widening of Delaware avenue and the extension of the city wharves to the new wharf line, and the other appropriating $500,000 for the deepening of the channel of the river in shoal places. The first of these ordinances should be adopted quickly and without dissent, as the city is already in arrears in its portion of the work providing better harbor privileges. The islands are already dredged away to a considerable depth, but no pier has been extended and no contraction of the channel afforded. Faith should be kept in this matter, and at once. When this has been done the deepening of the channel in shoal places will be in order.

Myers Wants the Pennant.

Harrisburg, Sept. 28.—The Harrisburg team went on the ground to-day and claimed the game, Pottsville not appearing. Manager Smith had received the rain guarantee for the postponed game and was duly bound to come. Mr. Myers to-morrow will make a formal request for the pennant, claiming that the agreement was unconstitutional and that he won the necessary three games out of five required by the constitution. He will appeal, if necessary, to the national board of arbitration and intends to show up the whole state league deal from beginning to end.

Damage Done By the Storm.

Fernandina, Fla., September 28.—A dispatch from Palataka announces great damage at that place to river craft during the storm. Advices from St. Augustine state that no lives were lost but several houses were wrecked and the damage will run into the thousands. Nearly all the windows in the city were blown in and the houses flooded with north water.

The east coast is still cut off from communication below St. Augustine and Palataka. It is estimated the storm has cost Florida more than a million dollars, but no lives have been lost unless at Key West, Titusville, Jupiter, or any east coast points.

Warrants for Unseated Lands.

Harrisburg, Sept. 26.—At a meeting of the Board of Public Property to-day Thomas Driscoll was given a warrant for forty acres of unseated land in Cascade township, Lycoming county. Cyrus Echard's claim to thirteen acres in Connelsville township, Fayette county, was approved. Thomas W. Moore has submitted a claim for 135 acres of valuable coal land on Broad Top mountain, which is opposed by the Rock Hill Iron and Coal Company. This and other applications were argued, but held under advisement.

VIGOROUS HEALTH FOR MEN

THE PASTILLE CURE FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY TRADE MARK

Prof. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED Pastille

Has been put up in a proprietary form since 1878, and has been used for years prior to that time in private practice. It is no untried nostrum, of doubtful reputation, but a genuine specific for a very prevalent disease. Thousands of men, of all ages, have at some time in life brought on nervous debility and exhaustion, with organic weakness, by over brain work, excesses, too frequent indulgence or indiscretion and vicious habits, and it is to these that we offer a remedy that will, by its direct action upon the seat of the disease, stop the drain and restore the patient to vigorous health and strength.

Our method of introducing Prof. Harris' Pastille treatment is one which commends itself to all sensible persons—for the reason that we supply it upon their judgment of its value. We ask of our patrons nothing in the way of expense beyond a postal card and a two cent postage stamp. The postal card to be used in sending us their full address and the postage stamp for the letter returning the statement of their case for which we supply them with a question blank, to be filled out, and an envelope addressed to ourselves for use in returning it when filled.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE. When we receive the statement on blank we prepare eight days' treatment and forward it by mail and prepay postage thereon—and along with the eight days' treatment we send full directions for using. The treatment in no way interferes with a person's attention to business, and causes no pain or inconvenience in any way.

We are so positive that it will give perfect satisfaction that we leave the matter of sending orders entirely with those using the free trial treatment. Having satisfied those sending for trial packages of our ability to benefit their sexual condition we feel that they are more largely interested than ourselves in continuing the use of the Pastilles. Even then we do not attempt to rob them by demanding high prices. On the contrary, we make the prices as low as possible, and the same to all. They are as follows: $3 for one month; $5 for two months; $7 for three months.

Trade Mark. SIGNATURE IN BLUE OF A BUSINESS PASTILLE

These prices secure the delivery of the Pastilles by mail. If desired by express we leave the patient to pay the charges. For over ten years we have operated our business upon this plan with satisfactory results.

We ask all persons needing treatment for any of the secret ills which come to mankind through a violation of nature's laws to send us their address on postal card or by letter and allow us to convince them that PROF. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED PASTILLES have merit and are what they need.

—It is said that Ed. Powers became very much excited this morning when he discovered his stables to be on fire; so much so that he almost took his bed with him in his eagerness to get his horse and chickens out of danger. But he succeeded, anyway, and that was what he most desired.

—Bellefonte had an incipient fire on Monday evening, but it was enough to cause the sounding of an alarm and to create considerable excitement. The blaze was on the roof of the laundry in the rear of the McClain block, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

—Five days yet remain in which you can perform a duty to your country and add honor to yourself legitimately, by the payment of poll tax. Then with your receipt in hand go the polls on November 6 and declare yourself an American freeman by voting the straight Republican ticket.

—The authority for this is unknown: A Somerset county administrator made the following indorsement on the back of a doctor's bill: "This claim is not verified by affidavit as the statutes require, but the death of the deceased is satisfactory evidence to my mind that the doctor did the work."

—Mr. George Baldwin, the florist just located in town, is also an expert in all kinds of tree culture. Shade and fruit trees, shrubbery and vines all trimmed by him in a scientific manner, not butchered. He has made a thorough study of it for years. The people will do well to let him know early of any work of that kind, so it can be done at the proper time. See his advertisement in another column.

—Some one who seems to have had a great deal of experience has been giving a sure cure for hiccoughs, and this is what it is: "All you have to do is to lie down, stretch your head back as far as possible, open your mouth widely, then hold two fingers above the head, well back, so that you have to strain the eyes to see them, gaze intently upon them and take long, full breaths. In a short time you will be entirely relieved of the troublesome hiccough."

—In accordance with special invitations sent out by Chairman Reeder a large number of republicans met in the Republican headquarters on Friday evening, the object being to map out a line of work for the fall campaign. Most every man present volunteered his services to assist in the work of electing the entire republican ticket, and from the confidence and enthusiasm displayed, it is easy to conclude that there is going to be considerable work done.

—The prompt acquittal of Professor Shortlidge, of Media, accused of the murder of his wife, is what everyone expected from the published facts. The only surprise is that any attempt was made to fix the crime of murder on this demented husband. It is perhaps natural, however, that the kindred of the unfortunate Mrs. Shortlidge, especially her mother, should view the matter in a different light from that of the more disinterested witnesses, who with scarcely an exception saw in the unhappy professor overwhelming evidence of a mind diseased, unhinged and irresponsible.

LOVE NOMINATED.

THE REPUBLICAN JUDICIAL DEADLOCK BROKEN AND

Bellefonte Is Again Honored.

Lovell Withdraws and Love Was Unanimously Nominated. He Came Home Friday Evening in a "Blaze of Glory." Lovell's Letter.

Ever since the 30th of August the Republican Judicial Conference of the 49th district, composed of the counties of Centre and Huntingdon, has been in almost continuous daily session at the Ward House in Tyrone. The two candidates for the nomination of President Judge, Hon. John G. Love, of Bellefonte, and Hon. K. Allen Lovell, of Huntingdon, were both conscientiously pushing their claims for the nomination and with old-time loyalty the trio of conferrees stuck to their man and cast ballot after ballot until 332 ballots had been counted, always with the same result—a tie. Various attempts were made by both to break the deadlock, but always without avail, and it began to look as if no nomination would be made. But the candidates did not thus mean to sacrifice the party to personal feeling and public sentiment throughout the district was finally consulted and allowed to govern. And this sentiment, being so strongly in favor of Mr. Love, his worthy apponent, Mr. Lovell, withdrew his name as a candidate and the conference voted unanimously for John G. Love on the 333rd ballot, and the long-kept-up struggle was at an end.

Before the conference adjourned both candidates were invited to appear before the conferrees, which they did. Mr. Love thanking them for their support and also thanking Mr. Lovell for yielding so gracefully his claims to the Judgeship nomination. Mr. Lovell, in a brief speech thanked his conferrees for their constancy to him and also declared himself as entirely satisfied with the result, and expressed his intention of doing all in his power for the success of the nominee, assuring Mr. Love that he would get the undivided support of the republican voters of Huntingdon county. The Conference then adjourned sine die. Following we give Mr. Lovell's letter of withdrawal in full:

MR. LOVELL'S LETTER.

TYRONE, Pa., Sept. 28, 1894.

To the Republican Conference of the Forty-ninth Judicial Conference:

GENTLEMEN:

Since the 30th of August last your conference has been in almost continuous session. Over 330 ballots have been taken in vain endeavors to secure a nominee. I am satisfied, as I know you all must be, that the deadlock is just as positive to-day as ever before, and unless it can be broken no nomination is possible. All efforts in that direction have so far failed, and the time in which to complete the work of the conference under the law is nearly at an end. This is the condition which now confronts both Mr. Love and myself. It is useless to disguise facts. It is said for him that he can better afford defeat at the polls than to yield now. My friends throughout the district, as well as the justice of my claims to this nomination, strongly urge me to the same conclusion. If we both remain in the field, our most sanguine friends admit that a democratic judge will unquestionably be elected, and in such a contest, the harmony of the republican party in the district, if not its defeat, will be seriously threatened. For my part I am not willing to remain in such a position of antagonism to the best interests of the party whose candidate I am, and which in my own county has twice made me its unanimous choice for this high office. I have made an earnest, honorable and prolonged fight for this nomination, but neither loyalty to my friends nor to my party requires the continuance of a fruitless struggle. That such is now the character of the present contest I think no one will longer deny.

In the presence then of what I conceive to be the duty of the hour, and in the interest of party harmony, I summon the courage to put aside for a second time, all personal ambition, and thus break the deadlock that has so long vexed your conference by yielding the nomination to Mr. Love, which I trust you will at once make unanimous.

I would be ungrateful indeed if I should fail at this time to acknowledge with sincere gratitude the valuable counsels and the devotion of my conferrees through all this tedious struggle, and it also affords me real pleasure to thank the conferrees who have represented Mr. Love for their courteous and gentlemanly treatment.

Very truly yours,
K. ALLEN LOVELL.

MR. LOVE'S HOME COMING.

It is impossible to tell the satisfaction whith which the republicans, as well as all the friends of Mr. Love, in this place, heard of his unanimous nomination. So many times had the news come that a "nomination would certainly be made to-morrow," and just as often the "to-morrow" passed without any being made that it looked like a hopeless situation, and the republicans in consequence were wearing long faces and the democrats broad smiles. But when the cheering news flashed over the wire that a nomination had been made and that the candidate selected was our own townsman, Mr. Love, everybody in this place realized at once that again had Bellefonte been honored and preparations were at once begun for as grand a welcoming home as the limited time would allow, it then being after 3 o'clock.

Consequently when the 8.45 train from Tyrone pulled in to the station at this place fully one thousand persons, irrespective of party or politics, and headed by the Bellefonte and Coleville bands, were assembled to bid him welcome. And it was amid the glare of many colored lights, the boom of the cannon cracker and to the time of the music of both bands that Mr. Love and his conferrees alighted and were escorted to the carriages in waiting. With a platoon of citizens in the lead, the Bellefonte band following, then the carriages, Coleville band and citizens, the whole preceeded by a platoon loaded with fireworks of every description, the putting off of which made the streets as brilliant as day and Mr. Love's path home a perfect "blaze of glory," the procession moved up High street, out Allegheny and East on Linn to Mr. Love's residence where also were gathered a large number of friends and neighbors to bid him welcome and tender heartfelt words of congratulation on his nomination.

When the last notes of the music of the bands had died oway on the night air, W. F. Reeder, Esq., stepped to the front and in a well-worded speech bid Mr. Love welcome home, assuring him that the gratification felt by his neighbors and friends over his nomination for the high office of President Judge could not be expressed in words. Mr. Love responded in his habitual easy and graceful style; giving a brief account of the tedious sessions of the conference, pledging himself to do all in his power for the success of the entire republican ticket and thanking all for their hearty demonstration in welcoming him home. Brief speeches were also made by C. P. Hewes, Esq., Harter, W. E. Gray, Esq., E. R. Chambers, Esq., and William Grauer. Then followed music by the bands after which the crowd dispersed and retired to their homes.

The expression of last night is a good indication of the feeling all over Centre county with regard to Mr. Love's nomination. His friends everywhere will feel happy over the result and the indications are that the entire republican party, not only in Centre county, but in Huntingdon as well, will give him undivided and loyal support, which will make his election a matter beyond all doubt. And it can truly be said that Mr. Love if deserving of the loyal support he has been given. And, if elected, there is not the least doubt but that he will make one of the most able Judges in the State of Pennsylvania.

Foster on the Weather.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm waves to cross the continent from the 25th to 29th and 30th to Oct. 5. The next will reach the Pacific coast about Oct. 6, cross the western mountains by the close of 7th, the great central valleys from the 7th to the 10th and the eastern states about the 11th. The warm wave will cross the western mountains about Oct. 6, the great central valleys about the 8th and the eastern states about the 10th. The cool wave will cross the western mountains Oct. 9, the great central valleys about the 11th and the eastern states about the 12th. New moon occurs Sept. 29, full moon Oct. 14 and Mars, in the early eastern skies, out shines all his neighbors, and will aid in giving us a warm, dry October in the northern states. He will not again visit our autumn skies till 1911. About the date of this bulletin very severe weather and earthquakes will occur in many parts of the world.

A Brakeman Killed.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Wednesday night, David Wilt, a Beech Creek brakeman, met with a fatal accident at Viaduct. He was standing on the platform of the caboose preparatory to getting off to throw a switch for a train that was running around them, when the slack of the train jerked the caboose and precipitated Wilt under it. The caboose passed over him cutting off his left leg below the knee. He was removed to the cottage hospital at Philipsburg, on the evening passenger train, where he died Thursday night. His remains were taken to his home at Jersey shore yesterday. His age was about 21 years.

Barn Burned at Potters Mills.

About half-past ten o'clock on Monday night the barn of Mr. W. L. Spangler, at Potters Mills, was noticed to be on fire. The alarm was at once sent throughout the neighborhood and everybody flocked to the scene of the conflagration to do what they could to save the property, but all efforts to save the building were fruitless. They succeeded, however, in getting out the stock and some of the farm implements, but the grain, hay, etc., were all destroyed. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary. The loss will foot up fully four thousand dollars and is but about half covered by insurance.

Beech Creek's Extension.

The Clearfield, Conemaugh and Western railroad that is now being talked of and in all probability will be built, will start at Potter's a point on the Beech Creek railroad, in Clearfield county, and will follow the Clearfield creek up to a branch called Mudlick creek, in White township, thence by way of Baker's cross roads to the Chest creek, at Patton, thence up one of the branches of the Blacklick or Conemaugh to Johnstown. The opinion prevails that work will be begun in a short time and that it is the Beech Creek railroad that is the controlling influence in building the road.

Attention Comrades.

All members of Gregg Post, No. 95, G, A. R., are requested to be present on Saturday, Oct. 6th, 1894, at 7.30 p. m.; the regular annual inspection and other important business demand a full attendance.

Ripans Tabules: one gives relief.

TWO FIRES IN ONE NIGHT.

And There are Five Stables Less in Bellefonte This Morning.

About 8 o'clock Tuesday evening fire was discovered in the large new stable belonging to the hotel of Gotleib Haag, on the alley between High and Bishop streets. An alarm was at once sounded and the fire companies responded quickly, but there was not enough water pressure at that point to be of any benefit, and it was not until the steamers were placed further down town and hose strung to the scene of the conflagration that effective work could be done. By this time Hagg's stable and Baum's stable adjoining were almost in ruins and a stable belonging to Henry Montgomery was on fire. The latter, however, was saved, with the exception of the one side and part of the roof which were badly charred. The other two stables are complete wrecks.

The fire was discovered in time to get all the stock out, but Haag lost fourteen tons of hay, 140 bushels of oats, 40 bushels of corn and 140 bundles of rye straw. His loss will foot up about $1,500, on which there was a partial insurance. It is very evident that the fire was the work of an incendiary as it was started on the floor leading from the alley and none of the people around the hotel had been on that floor after night fall.

And then, as if the evening fire was not sufficient to satisfy the demon who applied the torch, again at 3 o'clock this morning there was another alarm sounded, and this time it was the stables of Ed. Powers, two in number, and the stable of J. H. Sands, on the alley between Spring and Allegheny streets. All these stables were entirely consumed, but the stock was all saved. This fire was started in an open buggy shed between the two stables belonging to Powers, and was undoubtedly the work of the same person who started the fire early Tuesday evening.

The total loss on all the stables burned would probably be between three and four thousand dollars, only about half covered by insurance.

And now the question arises: Bellefonte has ample fire protection but it is badly in need of better protection from such devils of fire-bugs, and the proper authorities should lose no time in putting forth every effort possible to capture the person or persons capable of doing such dastardly acts. A more efficient night police patrol might avail somewhat towards reaching this result. One man on duty is not sufficient to guard a town the size of Bellefonte at night. A hundred fires could be started in one part of the town while the policeman was in the other extreme end and the man who applied the torch be at home and in bed before the guardian of the law discovered the fire. Therefore, it would be well to do everything possible to prevent any such future occurrences.

omething Should be Done.

Two fires in one night, in a town the size of Bellefonte, is sufficient to cause great alarm concerning the safety of property as well as the safety of many citizens to say the least of it.

It is clear, that the two fires of last evening were the work of two classes of incendiaries. We say incendiaries, because experience has proven that fires originated in the early part of the evening, are caused by one class of incendiaries and those in the later hours of the morning, are the work of another class of incendiaries. Usually, fires in the early hours of the evening are caused by boys or young men from sixteen to twenty years of age, who spend their evenings idly and who are required to be in doors at bedtime; therefore, for the purpose of raising an "excitement" or having a "run" with the fire engines, they give vent to their evil dispositions in time to enable them to have a "run" and be on hand at their homes at "bed time" as may be required of them.

These circumstances certainly behoove parents and guardians to be on the alert; be watchful; do not be too confident in your sons or wards, because experience has proven that these acts have been committed by those least suspected. Parents under all circumstances, are slow to suspect or believe that their sons commit such acts until they are detected, to the great surprise and consternation of those who entertained the greatest confidence in their off-spring. The sons of well-to-do and respectable parents have been proven to be the most dangerous and inconsiderate incendiaries, simply because they have been indulged in idle habits as well as undue liberties—they have not been taught the importance of doing right in preference to wrong.

When every parent or guardian, who have sons or wards of the age mentioned who shall be idly disposed during the evenings, makes an effort to watch their movements and ascertain their habits, they will take a step forward that will certainly bring to light some of the bad deeds which now menace our town.

The incendiaries who operate during the late hours of the night or early hours of the morning have a different object in view from those who start fires early in the evening. The object of these midnight incendiaries is malice or plunder. The probability is, that the two fires last night were the work of two classes of incendiaries, and it is most remarkable that this should have occurred under these circumstances during the same night. The incendiaries during the late hours at night or early morning hours are generally malicious persons or thieves—they commit the act for the purpose of giving vent to spite work or for the purpose of plundering, and it is quite probable that the two fires last night were the work of these two classes of incendiaries. The time is at hand when our citizens should wake up in behalf of their own interest and become more vigilant. They must secure detective service or that of judicious watchmen. The former is too expensive; not only that, it must be secured by the greatest secrecy. This cannot be accomplished successfully, because it requires several persons in interest to raise the necessary funds, which invariably leads to more or less exposure—we all know that the "secret of success is secrecy." In the absence of detectives, the next best thing, is the employment of competent and trustworthy watchmen. That is, the council should employ them secretly as possible at the expense of all the taxpayers—each taxpayer should bear his part of the pecuniary responsibility. Competent men can be employed at this particular juncture, with the least possible expense, who will render good service for the money expended and add greatly to the safety and comfort of the citizens of our town. The constant dread of these fires and the fright of the alarm is notice to the authorities of our town that the time is at hand when the exigencies require prompt action, and we trust the town council will heed the lesson and act accordingly.

Personal Pencillings.

Mr. Charles T. Noll, of Clearfield, spent Sunday with his parents in this place.

Miss Valeria Shisler, of Detroit, Mich., is a guest at the pleasant home of Mrs. Louisa Bush, on Spring street.

Mr. Boyd Huston and his sister, Isabella, of Clintondale, who were students at the Blairstown Academy, N. J., last year, are now attending the Academy here.

Rev. Samuel Creighton, who has spent the summer on his farm in Nittany valley, has gone to Lewistown, where he will take charge of his new pastorate on Sunday.

Mrs. William Charles and two children, of Williamsport, were arrivals in Bellefonte Saturday evening and will spend a week as guests of Mr. William Jones and family, on East High street.

Mrs. D. H. Hastings with her two daughters and maid, departed on Wednesday morning for Philadelphia, where Miss Helen will attend Miss Anable's school and where the others will spend the month of October visiting friends.

Mr. Emanuel Noll, the efficient baggage agent at the P. R. R. station in this place has in contemplation a trip to Kansas during the coming month. He will go out on a visit to see his brother, and it will be his first trip to that section of the United States.

Mrs. Lucy Twitmire.

Mrs. Lucy Twitmire, an aged and venerable lady living at Zion, died on Friday last after an illness of about nine weeks. She was 71 years of age and a widow, her husband having died several years ago. Since very early youth she has been a member of the Reformed church.

She was the mother of six sons and two daughters and several of her sons had attained and are filling prominent places in life. The sons are Prof. Edwin Twitmire, principal of the schools at Seattle, Wash.; Prof. George Twitmire, of Holmesdale, Pa.; Dr. Twitmire; Henry, of Pleasant Gap; Harvey, of Pittsburg; Jerry, of Freeport, Illinois. The two daughters are Mrs. Samuel Decker, of Zion, and Mrs. Shreffler, of Mill Hall. The aged mother of deceased, Mrs. Gephart, is still living, and is past 90 years of age.

The funeral took place on Sunday morning, Rev. O. Miles Noll officiating. The Reformed church here was closed on Sunday morning to permit Rev. Noll to officiate. All the children except one were present at the funeral. There were many beautiful floral emblems. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Zion.

Romola Rumblings.

Our farmers are near through seeding.

Miss Etta Ester, of Dubois, is the guest of Mrs. John A. Daley.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of this place, held a sociable at the residence of Mrs. Kinley Packer last Friday evening. Miss Mamie DeLong rendered several very fine selections on the guitar during the evening.

Mr. Thomas McCloskey is again able to be around.

Mrs. J. H. Daley, of Bradford, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Our schools will open Monday, Oct. 8th, with a competent corps of teachers.

R. J. Mann and James Fye are at present engaged in lumbering on Burns Run.

All of our hunters say there are no squirrels or pheasants this year.

A Bad Accident.

This morning John Borman, of Tyrone, a brakeman on the Bald Eagle valley railroad, met with a most painful as well as serious accident while in the act of coupling cars at the Snow Shoe Intersection. He was so unfortunate as to get his arm between the bumpers which came together on the elbow smashing the bones into splinters. He was brought to this place, and made as comfortable as possible until the 10.28 train for Tyrone when he was taken home. The arm will have to be amputated.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Monday Evenings' Session Paragraphed.

Borough council convened on Monday evening with but a quorum present, namely, Messrs. Gerberich, Williams, Hillibish, Beaver and Garman. On motion of General Beaver, Mr. Gerberich was elected president pro. tem in the absence of President Miller. Clerk Isaac Mitchell read the minutes of the previous session which were approved as read.

During the reading of the minutes President Miller made his appearance and took the chair at the head of council table.

A committee from the Undine Fire company was present and preferred a request for two 1¼ inch nozzles.

Mr. F. W. Crider was present and asked that he be allowed to make a water pipe connection with a new boiler he has put in the basement of his building, Crider's Exchange, for heating purposes.

J. C. Meyer, Esq., appeared in behalf of Robt McCalmont to explain how it came about that water had been used at their kilns for mechanical purposes.

The Street committee reported the bridge across the race, near Ryan's cigar store, as being in a dangerous condition, and that arrangements have been made to repair same at once. The relaying of the crossing on Howard street, by Mrs. Hales, has been completed. A new stone sewer has been built on Lamb street across Spring.

The Water committee reported part of the new 12-inch pipe laid, and the old pipe that is being taken up will be put down on Spring street, between Lamb and Linn. By the grading of Curtin street the water pipes have been brought to within five inches of the surface. In regard to the contract for water with Mrs. B. J. Valentine the water committee, after a thorough investigation, were unanimous in recommending a yearly tax of twenty-five dollars.

Fire and police committee reported new hose received by McKee & Bro. The Market committee reported a total of $6.30 market fees collected during the past two weeks. The Finance committee reported a balance due the treasurer on October first of $8,824,57. The treasurer reported that in a few days he would receive about $9,000 from the borough tax collector.

The request of the Undine Fire company for two new hose nozzles was referred to the Fire and Police committee with power to act.

Al. S. Garman asked permission to extend the underground sewer up Cherry alley to their property. Permission granted.

Mr. Beaver perferred a request from citizens of Curtin street for a crossing by Mrs. Gordon's property. The matter was referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

The request of Mr. F. W. Crider relative to use of water for his boiler in the Exchange was referred to the Water committee for investigation and report at the next meeting.

William S. Lyon was present and presented a petition from the citizens of the South ward for a new crossing on Allegheny street from the Brockerhoff house to the new building, "Temple Court." The matter was referred to the Street committee.

With the approval of the following bills council adjourned:

A Great Attraction.

I take great pleasure in informing my patrons that I have secured W. B. Leavitt's Gorgeous Spectacular Production, "Spider and Fly," for one performance, Monday evening, October 8th. For the past five years the "Spider and Fly" has scored a distinguished success, in all the first-class theatres in the larger cities. This is the most complete and largest organization that has ever appeared in Bellefonte.

All the resources of spectacle, pantomime, opera, vaudeville, scenic art, costuming, electricity and mechanical devices have been exhausted to render the "Spider and Fly" the most magnificent production before the public. The performance is clean, chaste and refined, presenting nothing to offend the most critical and cultured taste.

In bringing the "Spider and Fly" to Bellefonte I feel assured that my doing so will be appreciated by all who are fond of a delightful evening's entertainment.

That Temperance Rally.

The temperance rally at Clintondale park last Friday was attended by prohibitionists from this and adjoining counties. Chairman of the Prohibition State Committee Patton delivered an address in the afternoon, and was followed by the candidate for congressman-at-large, Rev. Mr. Jordan, who is pastor of one of the largest colored Baptist churches in Philadelphia. Mr. Jordan also delivered an address in the evening. Quartettes from Mill Hall and Bellefonte rendered several selections, and Miss Stoner, of Salona, sang a solo with good effect. The Clintondale band was also present and furnished music. Meals were served on the grounds, and altogether the Prohibitionists spent a pleasant day in the woods.
